

Reynolds Orders Several Changes In Budget-Tax Bill

Willing to Replace Certain Levies to Placate Democrats

BY JOHN WYNGAARD
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

MADISON — Gov. John Reynolds today ordered emergency repairs on his badly battered tax budget compromise bill to coax the reluctant Wisconsin Assembly to accept the measure it rejected in a top-heavy vote last week.

The governor told a news conference that he will offer important changes to meet the objections of his own Democratic party members and others intended to get more support from the Republican majority lawmakers.

Hopefully, he said he believes the measure can be put through the Assembly by Wednesday, whereupon it will be required to run the gauntlet of the State Senate again. Assemblymen returned to their seats late today.

New Sales Taxes
Reynolds said he is willing to replace some sales taxes, such as on electricity and heat, in order to placate hesitant Democrats. He would cover the revenue requirement by a series of new taxes on dry cleaning and laundry services, intra-state telephone calls, the servicing of taxable commodities as automobiles and soft drinks.

Because Republicans seem to be concerned about giving the personal property taxpayer a break, he said he will offer a plan for a 70 per cent reduction in personal property tax assessments of inventories and farm livestock, instead of the 50 per cent cut achieved two years ago.

To finance that program, he will suggest adding to the sales tax list, business machinery and equipment, construction equipment and machinery, except that used in residential building, and farm machinery and equipment.

The higher income tax proposals.

Gov. Wallace Says U.S. Near 'Civil Warfare'

Attacks Kennedy's 'Inept Handling' of Racial Problems

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. George Wallace of Alabama said today that inept handling of racial problems by the Kennedy administration has resulted in "a nation torn by strife and turmoil on the brink of civil warfare."

Wallace, who failed in his "schoolroom door" stand against integration at the University of Alabama, said that if Congress passes a public accommodations bill, "You should make preparations to withdraw all our troops from Berlin, Viet Nam and the rest of the world because they will be needed to police America."

Wallace's remarks were in a statement prepared for the Senate Commerce Committee. It resumed hearings today on one of the seven points in President Kennedy's civil rights program—a bill prohibiting racial discrimination in such public facilities as restaurants and hotels.

Khrushchev Jovial at Start Of Nuclear Test Ban Talks

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev talks today with Britain's Lord Hailsham in the former's Kremlin office prior to opening of nuclear test ban talks among Russian, British and United States representatives. With

Lord Hailsham is British Ambassador Sir Humphrey Trevelyan. Khrushchev meets this afternoon with Lord Hailsham, British science minister, and W. Averell Harriman, U. S. undersecretary of state.

British, U. S. Delegates Trade Humorous Remarks With Soviet Party Boss

MOSCOW (AP) — Jovial and apparently optimistic, Premier State W. Averell Harriman and Khrushchev personally opened Britain's Lord Hailsham, the Soviet leader quipped: "Shall we start off by signing the agreement right away?"

Harriman shoved a pencil and pad across the table toward Khrushchev. Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko grinned to his chief and said: "Sign it and leave it to be filled in."

The conference is expected to last 10 days.

Khrushchev's mood seemed to share the optimism of both the British and Americans about the success in agreeing on a prohibition which would bar nuclear test explosions in the air, in space and under water.

The Western side saw no prospect of getting a complete ban to cover underground explosions also.

Increasing the prospects for an agreement was the worsening split between the Soviet Union and Red China, Westerners here believed.

News photographers were allowed to enter the conference room before the actual talks began to take pictures of the negotiators.

The conference began with nine representatives on the U.S. and British side and five on the Soviet side.

Geneva Veteran
On the Soviet side in addition to Gromyko and Khrushchev was Semyon Tsarapkin, a veteran of the Geneva nuclear ban talks.

On the British-American side were Hailsham, Harriman, U. S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler, Sir Humphrey Trevelyan, the British ambassador, and a number of other advisers.

The room was different from that in which Khrushchev had met Hailsham Monday morning. It was much larger and the table was at least 30 feet long. It was covered with green cloth. Red pencils and white pads and green microphones dotted the table.

Pictures of Marx and Lenin and a map of the universe hung on the wall. Bottles of mineral water stood between the pads and pencils.

Khrushchev was again in a jovial mood.

Face-Saving Communique By Soviets, Chinese Likely

Message Expected to Say Time Will Heal the Differences in Deadlocked Communist Talks

MOSCOW (AP)—Diplomats predicted the Soviet and Communist Chinese negotiators will conclude their deadlocked ideological talks with a meaningless face-saving communique assuring that time will heal the differences in the Communist camp.

The seriousness of the split between the Communist giants was emphasized by publication Saturday of a 35,000-word Soviet Communist party statement, accusing the Chinese of being hypocrites and warmongers bent on a nuclear war with the West.

The Soviet statement, an open letter to the Communist parties of the world, was an official reply to the Chinese attack June 14 on Premier Khrushchev's policy of spreading communism by living in peace with the West. It was spread over four pages of the party newspaper Pravda.

Pravda also published the Communist Chinese letter, disclosing to the Soviet people for the first time the extent of the historic ideological differences. But statements from the two Communist parties have made clear that no

Britain Warns Guiana to Halt Race Turbulence

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP) — Britain has warned British Guiana's feuding politicians they will have to make peace and end racial turbulence if they want Britain to give the South American colony independence.

British Colonial Secretary Duncan Sandys gave the warning shortly before his departure Sunday for London after spending four days trying to mediate differences between pro-Communist Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan and his chief political opponent, Forbes Burnham.

In a radio broadcast, Sandys appealed to the Guianans to end the bitter strife between the country's East Indian majority and the large Negro minority.

Sandys said Britain would give no thought to granting independence or a new constitution unless there is a political settlement to insure internal peace.

Sandys failed to forge a coalition government. Informal sources said Jagan and Burnham couldn't agree on distribution of cabinet posts.

3 Runaway Children Shot to Death

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (AP) — Three runaway foster children were shot to death in a 7,000-foot high Arizona pine forest next to busy U.S. Route 66 because they had lost $150.

The man who gave them the money — a lifelong acquaintance — admitted Sunday he killed the three Negro children.

Today Robert Alford, also a Negro, is on his way back to Williams where Arizona authorities have charged him on three counts of murder.

Sunday night he stayed overnight in Stockton, Calif., where May 27 he had picked up the children.

Arizona investigator Dennis G. Smith said the children were en route with Alford to Wewoka, Okla.

Smith said Alford claims he re-members only that he reached for two pistols he had under the seat and then "coming to" sitting in a road, an empty gun in each hand.

The children, Carol Ann McCain, 14, and Teddy, 13, and Jacqueline Walker, 11, had gone willingly with Alford, Smith said.

Antarctic Temperature Falls to 109.8 Below

CHRISTCHURCH, New Zealand (AP)—The U.S. antarctic expedition's South Pole station recorded a record low temperature of 109.8 degrees below zero just before midnight Sunday night.

The previous record for the South Pole was 109.5 degrees below zero, recorded Sept. 13, 1959.

Rice Lake Home Hit By Fire; 2 Brothers Die; Sister Escapes

RICE LAKE (AP)—Two young brothers died late Sunday night when fire swept their two-story frame home. Their 15-year-old sister escaped by leaping from a second floor window.

The bodies of Neil Hantsman, 13, and his brother, Glen, 12, were found upstairs. Neil was lying part way out of the bedroom door in the hallway and Glen was found on the floor of the bedroom.

Sue Hantsman, 15, jumped to the ground from the second floor and was hospitalized with injuries that were not believed serious.

Fire Chief Harold Chartier said the family was not home at the time.

Liberal Vs. Conservative Fight

Rocky Challenges Goldwater for '64 Nomination

BY JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has challenged Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., to an all-out liberal vs. conservative fight for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination.

In a policy statement tantamount to announcing his candidacy, the New York governor said Sunday the Goldwater strategy is to try to weld conservative, Southern and Western support while writing off Northern states. This, Rockefeller said, "would not only defeat the Republican party in 1964 but would destroy it altogether."

Rockefeller said it was incredible that the Republicans would offer such an alternative to the "unprincipled opportunism that has captured the Democratic party."

He added: "That alternative will never be found in a party of extremism, a party of sectionalism, a party of racism, a party that disclaims responsibility for most of the population before it even starts its campaign for their support."

Unannounced Belligerent
Goldwater, who was not named in the statement, made no immediate response. But associates said they interpreted Rockefeller's attack as a declaration of war they were certain the senator would accept, even though he remains an unannounced belligerent.

They added that if Goldwater is writing off the industrial North, as Rockefeller charged, the New York governor is giving up on Republican chances to collect electoral votes in the South.

Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., a Goldwater rooster, chided Rockefeller. He said it is "no time for anger or name-calling among Republicans."

"Sen. Goldwater is the leading candidate because he squarely challenges the New Frontier ideology and performance," Curtis said. "He is not a sectional candidate."

Rockefeller's blast is regarded in Washington as the opening gun of a vigorous comeback campaign for the nomination. He was considered by many observers the leading contender until his recent marriage to a divorced mother of four children.

Midwest Speeches
In the period between his reelection as governor last year and his remarriage, Rockefeller tried with some success to warm up the conservatives to his cause by making what many of his listeners called "good Republican speeches" in the Midwest.

But the New York governor's attack on what he said were extremist views in the party indicated he has decided his best chance for the nomination is to champion the liberal viewpoint and sharpen his division with the conservatives.

This seemed to leave open the middle ground where Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio said Sunday Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky., comes closest among possible presidential nominees to representing the party consensus.

Taft, son of the late conservative senator from Ohio who lost the presidential nomination to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1952, said on a television program that neither Rockefeller nor Gold-

Silver Jubilee Assembly Ball a Gala Event

Introduced by their fathers to North Shore Golf Club president David E. Ryan Saturday evening were the young women above, Miss Susan Williams, Miss Susan Dickinson, Miss Anne Reiersen and Miss Jane Asmuth. The girls were then presented by Mr. Ryan to the adult membership, according to the tradition of the Assembly Ball, which was first held in 1937. The presentation took place at 10 p.m.

Carrying bouquets of red sweetheart roses with cascades of ivy and silver ribbon, eight young daughters of North Shore Golf Club members were introduced Saturday evening. Bowing to the club's adult members at the 25th Assembly Ball were Miss Judith Angermeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Angermeyer, 620 E. Wisconsin Ave., Neenah; Miss Jane Asmuth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Asmuth, 419 Beaulieu Road, Neenah; Miss Ann Baird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger A. Baird, route 1, Menasha; Miss Debbie Biggers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Biggers, 379 Willow Lane, Menasha; Miss Cathy Croxson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Croxson, 616 E. Forest Ave., Neenah; Miss Susan Dickinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dickinson Jr., 218 N. Lawe St., Appleton; Miss Anne Reiersen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Reiersen, 726 Congress Place, Neenah, and Miss Susan Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Williams, 770 Chestnut St., Neenah.

The 'night of the year' for the young women, all recent high school graduates, began with a pre-ball party at the home of Miss Baird. The presentees, their escorts and guests dined at the club in a setting enhanced by table decorations of milk glass bud vases with red sweetheart roses and smilax.

The young women then donned their ball gowns of 'debutante' white, and at 10 p.m., against a background of white columns, ferns, white gladioli and chrysanthemums, were presented by their fathers to club president David E. Ryan. The traditional procedure was carried out to the music of "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody," as each young woman and her father took their places inside the be-ribboned center of the ballroom.

Dance to "Misty"

After all had been introduced and applauded by members and guests, each father, to the melody of "Misty", claimed his daughter's first dance. The ribbon was then lowered and fathers stepped aside as the presentees' escorts began the traditional 'rush' dance.

As the last song of the evening became part of a memory, the girls, their escorts and guests went on to a post-ball party at the home of Miss Angermeyer, with Miss Croxson serving as co-hostess.

For her presentation at the Silver Jubilee Assembly Ball, Miss Angermeyer chose a floor length gown of rich bouquet taffeta. Her escort was Robert Thoms, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Thoms, Neenah.

Taffeta, Organdy, Lace

Miss Asmuth entered the ballroom in a gown of white imported silk organza with an overblouse of embroidered organdy. She chose George Massey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clem Massey, Menasha, as her presentation escort. Her guests were Leslie Asmuth, Jim Hedlund, Marilyn Schlomer and Dick Kiel. Guests of Miss Baird at the event were Miss Noel Fursenberg and James Ragus, Appleton. Miss Barbara Weisse, Plymouth, and Randy Lawton, DePere. Miss Baird was gowning in a floor length dress of chiffon taffeta with a bustle detail on the tunic skirt. Her escort, Robert Esten, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip A. Esten, Beaver Dam.

Escorted by Mark Willerding, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Willerding, Menasha, Miss Biggers chose a gown of embroidered nylon organdy with a scalloped overskirt and strapless fitted bodice. Her party guests were Miss Judi Sheleski, Phil Strong, Miss Hope Hollenbeck and Bill Steffen. Thomas O'Leary, son of Mrs. John O'Leary, Neenah, was the escort of Miss Croxson, who appeared in a ball dress of white peau de soie with leaf detail on neckline and skirt panels. Her guests at the ball were Miss Marina Jorgensen, Henry Riepe, Miss Kathy Holverson and James Catlin.

Irish lace over taffeta was the ball gown choice of Miss Dickinson, who was escorted by Peter Fransway, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Fransway, Appleton. Her guest invitations were extended to Miss Susan E. Miller, Gregg Reynolds, Miss Deanne Kurtz and James Recker. Miss Reiersen chose Timothy Tuchscherer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Konrad H. Tuchscherer, Neenah, as her party escort. For her presentation she wore a gown of satrapeau over taffeta with a square neckline and fitted bodice. Her guests were Miss Susan Johnson, James Pansch, Miss Kristine Mortensen and James Nielsen.

Miss Williams' ball guests were Dixon, Neenah, as her escort, and to 145 the number of young women they become 18. The eight Miss Mary Jensen, Robert Blel, was presented in a gown of peau de soie with a wrap effect on the event, first held in 1937. The party, the freshmen in colleges and university traditionally honors the daughters in various parts of the on, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waller Saturday evening's ball brings to the sum-country in the fall.

To the appropriate background music of "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody" these young women joined other North Shore club members' daughters who have been presented at Assembly Balls. They are Miss Judith Angermeyer, Miss Cathy Croxson, Miss Ann Baird and Miss Debbie Biggers. The silver jubilee event began with a pre-ball party at the Baird Home. Each young woman invited two couples as her special ball guests.

Fathers of North Shore Golf Club presentees play a major role in Assembly Ball proceedings, escorting their daughters into the ballroom and formally introducing them to the club president. Above are Miss Anne Reiersen and her father, Maynard Reiersen, Miss Debbie Biggers and her father, H. S. Biggers, and Miss Ann Baird and her father, Roger Baird.

Each girl introduced at the Assembly Ball was gowning in 'debutante' white, and, to the applause of family and friends, bowed to the adult membership of the club as she was formally presented by club president David E. Ryan. Above are Robert Asmuth and his daughter, Jane; Howard J. Angermeyer and his daughter, Judith and Wayne Williams and his daughter, Susan.

The first dance of the evening was the special prerogative of the fathers of Assembly Ball presentees Saturday evening. As the strains of "Misty" faded and the white ribbon was lowered, the young women were claimed by their escorts in the traditional 'rush' dance. Shown at right are Miss Judith Angermeyer and her escort, Robert Thoms, Miss Anne Reiersen and Timothy Tuchscherer, and Miss Ann Baird and Robert Esten. The gala evening included a pre-ball party, dinner for escorts and guests at the club, the presentation and dance, a swim in the club pool, and a post-ball party at the Angermeyer home. (Photo by Norbert Zenejski)

After the ball was over, young members and guests left North Shore Golf Club for an informal party at the home of Miss Judith Angermeyer. Co-hostess was Miss Cathy Croxson. A huge bonfire was the focal point at this 'end of the evening' affair, and the presentees and their guests changed to casual clothes to wind up their wonderful night. Soft drinks and snacks put the final touch on the 1963 Assembly Ball.

Your Problems

Proud Mother 'Beautifies' Four-Year-Old With Make-Up

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: A close friend, in my opinion, is making a serious mistake in bringing up her 4-year-old daughter. Please tell me if you think I should speak to her about it. My husband says I should mind my own business.

This woman waited 12 years for her first child. The little girl is beautiful and her mother doesn't let her forget it. When the child is asked her name she says, "My name is Debbie and I am beautiful."

Every Saturday afternoon the mother takes Debbie to the beauty salon for a manicure and a hair-set. When the child goes out in company her mother puts lipstick, rouge and eye make-up on her. I become awfully upset when I see this little kid all painted up. Several of my friends feel the same way. We can't understand why a mother would do this to her child. Shall I try to set her straight? — Nausea

Dear Nausea: A mother who would paint a four-year-old to look like a kewpie doll is so thoroughly kooked up that you can't reach her. The real tragedy is that the youngster will in all probability be kooked up, too. It's unfortunate that children are available to anyone who is biologically able to produce them.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Ten years ago I was divorced and remarried. My present wife is a fine person and we get along well together. At the time of the divorce Charlotte and I thought it would be best to move away—far away—so I took a job in another part of the world.

Now, after all these years we are back in the old home town and this is what I am writing about. I saw my ex-wife for the first time in 10 years. She looks more beautiful than ever. Everyone in the community has a lot of respect for the way she has conducted herself since the divorce. She is still single.

I would like to take her to dinner, say about once a month. Nothing personal, you understand, just friendly. After all, we have a lot in common and I believe it's a sign of maturity when people can treat each other in a civilized manner. I hope you'll say O.K. because I believe she is lonely. — Side Pocket

Dear Pocket: What a peachy combination — she's lonely and you want to be friendly. You're angling for a re-run, Junior, and you know it. Why don't you and Charlotte go back to wherever you've been for the past 10 years?

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Ours is a ritzy neighborhood. There are 12 families on both sides of the street. We all get along well, except for one couple which bugs us.

This pair refuses to join in even one sociable highball. Nobody expects them to get smashed out of their minds, we just resent their stuffy, uncongenial, rock-headed attitude. If they don't want to be one of the crowd

Indians Roam Golf Course At BDM Ladies Day Event

The Indians who roamed the greens and fairways at Butte des Morts Golf Club Wednesday were strictly part of a matrilachal society. Judged chief for the day, after proving herself at the 'contest,' was Mrs. Edward Foulk, Oshkosh, who scored a hole-in-one on No. Five.

The event, planned by the Butte des Morts Ladies, featured the Indian decor and was attended by women of the Waupaca Country Club. Luncheon was served outdoors.

Mrs. F. D. Farver was chairman for the day, assisted by Mrs. A. W. August, Mrs. J. E. McCrary, Mrs. R. W. Shepard and Mrs. Andrew Wargo.

Mrs. John Goehler and Mrs. T. J. Sherry had charge of prizes and scoring was done by Mrs. George Theiss.

Guest winners for the day were Mrs. Harold Johnston, 18 hole low gross; Mrs. Reuben Danielson, low net; Mrs. John

Mrs. Edward Foulk, Oshkosh, above, walked off with golfing honors Wednesday at Butte des Morts Golf Club. She scored a hole-in-one on No. five and won the 18 hole low gross event for members. The program for the day was carried out in an Indian motif, honoring guest members of the Waupaca Country Club. At left, Mrs. Andrew Wargo and Miss Kay Gillette admire the papoose carried by Mrs. Fred Kampe, Neenah, center. Below, in front of the teepee set up on the lawn, are, seated, Mrs. Karl Towsley and Mrs. Clyde Stephenson. Standing are co-chairmen Mrs. A. W. August, Green Bay, and Mrs. Frank Farver, Neenah. # Mrs. Richard Bast Bloomfield Setting for Ceremony

Miss Jane Ellen Koehler, 621½ N. Superior St., became the bride of Richard John Bast July 6 at Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church, West Bloomfield. The Rev. E. L. Wendling performed the 3:30 p.m. double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Koehler, Weyauwega. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William C. Bast, 106 Winnifred St., New London.

Maid of honor at the wedding was Miss Betty Ann Bast, New London, a sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Thomas Fuerst, New London, and Miss Janice Tews, Readfield, served as bridesmaids.

Filling the role of best man was Gordon Koehler, a brother of the bride. Thomas Fuerst and Thomas Marks, New London, were groomsmen. Attending as ushers were Martin Koehler, Fremont, a brother of the bride; Marvin Buckholtz, Fremont, and Ken Krause, New London.

A reception was given at the Weyauwega American Legion Hall, and a dance at Bear Lake Resort, Manawa. After a honeymoon in the west, the couple will live in New London.

The bride is a graduate of Weyauwega Union High School, and is employed at Aid Association for Lutherans. Her husband was graduated from Washington High School, New London, and is employed at I.G.A. Foodliner, New London.

Mrs. R. R.: "We intend to use carpet we have now as a rug in the living room of our new home. It isn't as long as the room, but it is slightly wider and my husband thinks we shouldn't cut off more than will fit it wall-to-wall across the room. I think we should cut off enough to leave the same margin of floor showing on all sides. Since the carpet is 18 inches short the long way, this means cutting off an extra 18-inch strip to make all sides nine inches from the baseboards. The cut-off strip probably would be wasted. What do you think?"

A rug touching baseboard on two sides of the room only usually looks badly fitted. However, floor margins need not be equal. Cut off 12 inches of width rather than 18 and more of the rug will be used. Six-inch margins of floor at the sides are in good proportion to nine-inch margins at the ends of a medium or large room.

Negro Employment Equality Requires Million New Jobs

Walter Heller Argues Tax Cut Needed to Expand Job Picture

BY STERLING F. GREEN and ADREN COOPER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's top economist warned today that the Negro drive for civil rights and job equality will be "frustrated and frustrating" unless the country provides millions of new jobs.

Chairman Walter W. Heller of the President's Council of Economic Advisers said Negro unemployment—now double the white rate—will fall twice as fast as that of whites if a tax cut paves the way to full employment.

By providing equal hiring opportunities, the nation can expand its output by $14.5 billion a year, Heller told The Associated Press in an interview.

The question-and-answer text: Q. Mr. chairman, would you say that the civil rights problem is in large part an economic problem?

Economic Rights A. Well, civil rights don't mean much without economic rights—without the right, and above all, the opportunity to get a self-respecting job.

Q. In that connection, you said recently in effect that full employment means more to non-whites than to any other major group. Why?

A. The answer is very simple, and is found in the unemployment rates today. For Negroes, unemployment is over 10 per cent. For whites it's about 5 per cent. When over-all unemployment falls, we find from past experience that the rate for Negroes falls twice as fast as the rate for whites. So

"Last to be hired, first to be fired" is the oft-voiced complaint of the Negro worker. How does his drive for job equality mesh with his quest for civil rights? Can he expect his economic lot to improve? These and other questions are explored in this exclusive Associated Press interview with Dr. Walter W. Heller, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers.

It's crystal clear that the Negro has a huge stake in successful policies for full employment.

Q. Is it fairly predictable that Negro joblessness will drop twice as fast as white, given a general improvement in jobs?

"Chapter Verse"

A. Let me give you chapter and verse. First, let's look at the record when unemployment goes up. When the over-all unemployment rate rose 2½ points, from 1957 to 1958, Negro unemployment rose 4.6 per cent; and from 1960 to '61, over-all unemployment rose 1.1, and Negro unemployment rose 2.3 points. Now let's see what happens when unemployment drops, from 1958 to 1960, when unemployment over-all declined 11, Negro unemployment fell 10.5 percentage points, Negro unemployment dropped 2.4 percentage points. Again, from 1961 to '63, the ratio was exactly 2 to 1

Q. Is this true in the North as well as the South?

A. Yes. Figures from the 1960 census show, for example, that when Oklahoma City had an over-all rate of unemployment of 3.2 per cent, its Negro rate was 6.4 per cent. Or take Chicago: it had 5.2 per cent over-all, and 10.8 per cent Negro unemployment. Or Birmingham, which had 6.7 per cent over-all unemployment, and 11.1 per cent Negro unemployment.

Now they don't all fall into precisely this pattern, but note that it is roughly a 2 to 1 ratio.

Slow Progress

Q. Does this imply that while there have been gains in Negro education and integration, there hasn't been much economic improvement?

A. I think it demonstrates that the progress has been much too slow. It's true that the educational gap between Negroes and whites has been shrinking. Yet for the decade 1950 to 1960, we find that the income gap has not narrowed at all.

Job discrimination is dramatically reflected in the poverty figures. Over one-half of our Negroes are in poverty status.

Q. What do you consider poverty status?

A. $3,000 of family income, or below. By that standard, it's appalling to find that over half of our Negro families are in poverty status, as against something less than one-fifth for whites.

Q. Do you believe that there is any real possibility of improving Negro income without an over-all improvement in the economy?

Key Solution

A. You are putting your finger on the key solution to the problem of Negro unemployment and job discrimination — an adequate supply of jobs in the economy as a whole. When job are scarce, discrimination flourishes. When manpower is scarce discrimination ebbs because it becomes too costly for employers. Now that's not to say that other measures aren't important. After all, the Negro still has only 70.5 per cent of the educational attainment of the white. There are discriminations, and demands for higher skills have to be met. You have to have a combined program of training, education, removal of discrimination on one hand, and a good, thumping, full-employment policy on the other hand.

Q. Now the administration's major proposal to increase jobs and to stimulate growth is tax reduction. Do you believe that this is part of the answer to the Negro's problem?

A. I think it's an essential part. A $10-billion tax cut, as it is spent and re-spent, will generate about $30 billion to $40 billion of added output, and roughly 2 to 3 million additional jobs. Past experience tells us that this will cut the Negro unemployment rate by more than one-third.

Automation Q. Isn't it a possibility that automation has moved so far that this reduction might not take place—that this time, because most Negroes lack the skills needed in modern industry, Negro unemployment might not follow the pattern?

A. That's a possibility, but we have sliced the figures every possible way, and no matter how they are broken down, the rates of increase and decrease in unemployment by various sectors—skilled, unskilled, clerical, managerial—have followed past patterns.

Q. Dr. Heller, we have been embarked on a fairly brisk expansion which now has lasted about as long as any postwar economic recovery. Why hasn't that made inroads on this problem?

A. Our labor force and our productive potential are growing so fast that we have to run just to stand still, and we have to race to gain ground on our unemployment problem. Just think—from the second quarter of last year, our total output rose by something like $30 billion, and yet our average unemployment rate rose from 5.3 per cent to 5.8 per cent of the labor force.

Is Reverse True?

Q. You have been arguing that more rapid economic growth would help eliminate discrimination. Is the reverse true — that ending discrimination would help economic growth?

A. Yes. Taking the skills and training that Negroes have today and giving them equal job opportunities would give us 2½ per cent more gross national product. That adds up to $14.5 billion. That would pay half of the country's entire educational bill for a year.

Q. With no further increase in the Negroes' level of education and skills?

A. Yes. Then if you gave the Negroes equal educational opportunity, this would add another $5 billion to $10 billion in output.

Q. How do you figure that?

A. There is a big payoff awaiting the country, not only in new jobs for Negroes, but in upgrading the jobs they now have. It's not just the unemployment problem, it's the problem of the skilled machinist who is now driving a cab for lack of full opportunity.

More Benefit

Q. Dr. Heller, you have pictured this tax cut as being of perhaps more benefit to the Negro than to the country as a whole.

A. That is, proportionately, of course.

Q. Proportionately, yes. Wouldn't the other side of the coin be that the Negro also benefits greatly in federal services, welfare for instance, which could be bought with the money that otherwise would come in if there is no tax cut?

A. Taking the slightly longer view, the argument runs the other way. Given the $30 billion to $40 billion of added output, of income and profits, tax revenues of federal, state, and local governments will rise enough to more than replace the initial loss and then some. That has certainly been the history of our past tax cuts.

Q. To summarize, are you say-

Claims Tax Cut Would Aid Negro

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., said Saturday that a tax cut that would spur the economy would be more beneficial to Negroes than congressional passage of civil rights legislation.

Smathers, a member of the Senate Finance Committee and a close personal friend of President Kennedy, said on a taped television-radio program he will filibuster against the administration's civil rights proposals although he could support five out of seven of them.

But he said it would be tragic if this controversy prevents Congress from acting on a tax reduction.

Minister Quits Bi-Racial Group

BELOIT (AP) — A Negro minister withdrew Saturday from a 15-member Beloit Bi-racial Commission nominated last Thursday by City Manager Richard Calland.

The Rev. U. S. Pride of the New Zion Baptist Church said he would not serve on the commission because the omission of the Rev. Oliver Gibson from the group shows "disregard for the wishes of the Negro community."

Mr. Gibson, a Negro, is chairman of the Beloit Christian Leadership Conference, an affiliate of Dr. Martin Luther King's national organization which sponsored a demonstration march in Beloit last month.

ing that Congress has a double-barrelled job—both of eliminating discrimination and providing a better economic climate?

A. Yes. Unless there are job opportunities at the end of the road, the rest of the programs will be frustrated and frustrating.

Advertising Watchdogs Declare Consumer's Getting Protection

BY J. W. DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two men of the Federal Trade Commission, who are much interested in the American consumer, say he is pretty well guarded these days. "I think our advertising agencies are doing a remarkable job. Their slogan is 'truth in advertising', and I think they realize we could ill afford to have a cynical public."

But here's what they do say: "I think that between the media and the Federal Trade Commission, our consumers are getting pretty good protection."

1. Paul Rand Dixon, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, government watchdog against business fraud and deception. "I think our advertising agencies are doing a remarkable job. Their slogan is 'truth in advertising', and I think they realize we could ill afford to have a cynical public."

2. Kenneth B. Willson of New York, president of the National Better Business Bureau, a private antitrust organization formed and backed by businessmen. "There has been a significant improvement in recent years in the reliability of national advertising."

Media in the sense used by Dixon and Willson means advertising vehicles such as newspapers, magazines, radio and television provide.

The views of Dixon and Willson were sought because of the great growth of advertising—it was a $12.5 billion business last year compared to less than half that in 1950—and complaints that some fast-buck characters never stop trying to gyp the public.

FTC's Work

Dixon, 49, has been pushing the FTC's work against fraud and deception without letup in legal actions, speeches and otherwise since President Kennedy appointed him to the top commission post more than two years ago.

He came to the job after having worked for the FTC in 1938-57 as an examiner and then serving as counsel for the Senate antitrust and monopoly subcommittee in 1957-61 under the chairmanship of a fellow Tennessean, Democrat Estes Kefauver.

He might be said to have an especially close connection with the newspaper industry: he gets up every morning at 5:30 to help his son Dickie carry his newspaper route. He used to do the same for an older son, David, now in high school.

Sigurd Anderson, a Republican member of the commission who used to be governor of South Dakota, made up a special list of complaints that have moved the FTC to action.

Moving Complaints

Here are several of those on the list, with Anderson's comments:

ARTHRITIS CURES—"Here we have the cruelest of all deceptions. Most arthritis victims cannot be cured because there are few cures for arthritis. This acting, nagging affliction has been a great money maker for 'operators' who glowingly advertise and sell pills that are made of aspirin with additives of doubtful worth, copper, zinc, and other metallic bracelets and anklets or metal heel plates, all claimed to bring great relief. . . . The number of these 'cures' that the FTC has stopped is great."

OBESITY CURES—"This is a profitable area of operation. Here it can be said that those who offer and sell these cures literally 'live off the fat of the land.' It is quite a temptation for an overweight person to buy preparations that permit him to eat his favorite food and at the same time enable him to lose weight. . . . Medical authorities are firm on the proposition that caloric intake generally determines weight."

HAIR RESTORERS — "The campaign to either stop the loss of hair or to restore the hair has been, is now, and will be expensive, trying and burdensome to the anxious male with hair troubles. Countless cures, both by preparation or treatment claiming effectiveness, have been stopped by the FTC. Most baldness, 90-95 per cent thereof, is male pattern baldness, for which there is no cure."

WORK-AT-HOME SCHEMES—"These alleged opportunities are offered to the aged, the crippled, the retired or the part-time workers of our country. . . . It is indeed a cruel perpetration of fraud to practice upon such persons who are so badly in need, but that is of small moment to the sharp operator who is interested in deception and a quick sale."

EDUCATIONAL FRAUDS—"There are many fine correspondence schools in the United States. But there are also many correspondence schools whose courses are of little, if any, value. . . . In this connection the commission has taken action against correspondence schools offering practical nurses training, heavy machine equipment training, preparation for government positions in foreign countries, airline hostess work and airline mechanics work and many others that have been found to be deceptive and fraudulent in nature."

DECEPTIVE PRICING—"The product, let us say, is a watch marked $75. Someone has stricken the $75 with a marking pencil and down below are the words: Now $20. To the public this means that the watch has previously sold for $75 and is now selling for $20. This is a tremendous inducement to buy. The fact of the matter is that the watch had probably never been sold for $75, was never intended to sell for $75, and offering the watch at this considerably 'lower' price is just a gimmick."

Possible Fine

When the FTC issues a cease and desist order against a practice, and the order becomes legally final, repetition exposes the advertiser to fines of $5,000 a day. The committee notes that publications and stations have the right to accept or reject advertising as they wish, and adds: "Most media exercise the prerogative with vigor. The American Newspaper Publishers Assn., has reported, for instance, that 755 U.S. and Canadian daily newspapers rejected some $7.6 million in advertising in the single year of 1960."

Loading magazines have made notable contributions, including thorough tests of products advertised."

Planning Group Questions Proposed Space Reduction

Action-Delayed on Decision to Okay Apartments in Appleton

The Appleton city planning commission today questioned the advisability of reducing area requirements per living unit to permit construction of an apartment building on E. John and S. Meade Streets, but took no action because it had received no comment from the 12th Ward alderman.

Two residents of the area protested construction of the proposed building, which would contain 18 to 20 one-bedroom efficiency apartments.

Commission policy requires the alderman to be present at the public hearing or to communicate his opinion by letter or phone on rezoning requests in his ward.

One Request Approved

Lack of comment from aldermen also delayed action on two other rezoning requests, but one request was approved later when a commission member contacted the alderman by telephone.

Representatives of a Milwaukee firm appeared before the planning commission to ask modification of the area requirements for the efficiency apartments from 1,000 to 750 square feet of lot area per unit. Similar reductions have been approved in other cities, including Oshkosh, Neenah and Fond du Lac, they said.

Walter C. Rasmussen, director of planning, recommended that the area requirements not be reduced and that if a 14 or 15-unit building is satisfactory to the petitioners, the property then be rezoned from two-family to multiple-family residential district, as requested. The property should not be rezoned unless the existing buildings are removed, he said.

Need for Units
The modification would recognize the need for some "high density" type units for old people, young couples and single working people, attorney F. Joseph Sensenbrenner told the commission. The request is not for a general reduction for all areas but for an ordinance for this specific type of building, he said.

"I think Appleton is very liberal with 1,000 square feet," said commission member Raymond N. LeVee, noting that Oshkosh required 3,000 square feet and Neenah 1,500. "We certainly don't want to build tenements in Appleton," he said.

This may be all right for Chicago and Milwaukee where ground values make high rise buildings and efficiency apartments necessary, LeVee said, "but I fail to see why this is necessary in Appleton and why we need what I would consider a crowded apartment building."

Ask Investigation
LeVee asked for an investigation into whether 750 square feet is adequate.

Mrs. E. W. Shannon, 844 E. South St., and Mrs. T. E. Orblison Sr., 319 S. Meade St., protested construction of the apartment building.

The commission noted that a 15-unit apartment building could be built under the present code if the council approves rezoning of the property from two family to a multiple family residential district. The area of the property is approximately 15,700 square feet.

Action Postponed
Action on the request was postponed until the next planning commission meeting Aug. 5 because 12th Ward Ald. Douglas A. Ogilvie was not present and had not communicated his opinion on the request.

The commission recommended council approval of a rezoning request from commercial and light manufacturing district to local business district for property at 2718 N. Meade St., where Dr. L. I. Christianson and Theodore Harris plan to erect an office building for two dental offices and one engineering office.

The commission at first postponed action on the request because no word had been received from 14th Ward Ald. George L. Buckley. After Buckley was contacted, action was postponed.

$800 Donated In Lawrence Negro Drive

A drive by Lawrence College students this spring netted almost $800 in contributions and 92 boxes of clothes for Greensboro, Miss. Negroes who tried to register to vote.

The students collected $475 in a door-to-door campaign. They received $25 from the Appleton Chamber of Commerce and $17 from the Montefiore Ladies Aid Society Sunday morning offerings from St. Therese and Sacred Heart Catholic churches also were donated.

The students sent boxes of clothing collected by the congregations of Faith Lutheran, Memorial Presbyterian, First Congregational and Evangelical United Brethren churches and the St. Vincent de Paul Society center.

The clothing was shipped to Chicago free of charge by Olson Trucking Co. and from there sent to Greensboro. The money was sent to the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee headquarters in Atlanta and from there to the Mississippi town.

DePere Man Asks Trial in Support Case
OSHKOSH — Sigard Moseng, 47, route 7, De Pere, pleaded innocent of non-support of his wife and three minor children and asked for a 12-man jury trial, Winnebago County Judge James Sitter ordered the case transferred to circuit court.

Moseng's family live in Neenah. Judge Sitter sentenced Thomas Rolph, 30, 525 Division St., Oshkosh, to 90 days in the county jail for non-support of his family. Dist. Atty. Jack Steinhilber told the court he did not think Rolph was trying hard enough to find employment.

Rolph had pleaded guilty several weeks ago but sentence was withheld to give Rolph a chance to find a job.

Marquette Instructor Discusses Individualized Reading Programs

Favors Method Over Basic Teaching Plan, She Tells Librarians at OSC Workshop

OSHKOSH — While the move toward individualized reading programs in the elementary grades is more common in the United States, many such programs are being developed in this area of the country, Dr. Patricia Cianciolo, assistant professor, Marquette University, Milwaukee, told persons attending the opening session of the library reading workshop at the Wisconsin state college here this morning.

This morning's session, first of a series, was held on the basis of help and guidance in the OSC campus Little Theater building on Tuesday, was held at 10:15 a.m.

Dr. Cianciolo told the assembled teachers and students that the individualized reading program she is developing is a life-long learning program, rather than the basic text used in the other program.

Also, she said, the student usually learns the various reading techniques when they are needed, rather than pre-teaching needed under the guidance of the instructor. In the other program, the student is first taught the basic reading skills on a set pattern and then puts them to use.

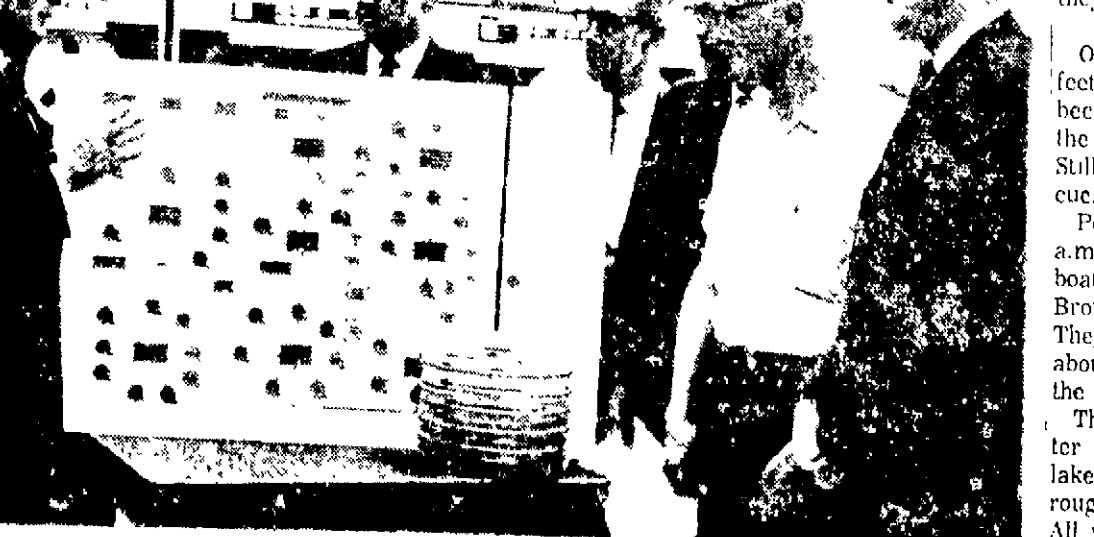

Certain trends in modern teaching tend to support the individualized reading programs, she said.

The values gained from such a reading program include having the student gain and develop skill in using many types of books, rather than the basic text used in the other program.

Workers Voting on K-C Plant Contract; Expect Ratification

1,600 Employees Will Cast Ballots in Double Sessions

Union workers at Kimberly-Clark's Lakeview and Badger Globe plants are voting today on ratification of the newly negotiated contract written last week in the shadow of a strike threat.

Federal Mediator James A. Despins said Local 482 of the International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers and Local 487 of the United Papermakers and Paperworkers will hold two voting sessions each today and two more Tuesday. The double sessions were arranged so all shift workers could vote.

Despins, key figure in the crucial pre-strike deadline negotiations, said he expects the new contract to be ratified.

About 1,600 employees at the two plants must cast ballots for or against the new contract. The negotiations covered about 5,000 employees at five Kimberly-Clark plants at Neenah, Munising, Mich., Memphis, Tenn., and Childersburg, Ala.

Key Factor
A proposed insurance program was the key factor in the contract dispute. This and several other issues were resolved by the bargainers during marathon negotiations in Chicago and Neenah.

The unions had voted to strike the huge papermaking corporation when agreement on contract issues could not be reached prior to the termination date.

Late last week Despins announced that "Kimberly-Clark officers and union representatives have announced that negotiations have been concluded. Union members will hold their meetings early next week to vote on the company offer."

Neither company nor union officials have revealed specific details of the last company offer which brought about the agreement. The package is understood to contain, among other things, a general 3 per cent wage increase and other wage adjustments ranging from one to nine cents per hour involving "a large number" of union workers.

Officers Find Money Taken In Burglaries

$910 Hidden in Chilton Home of One Of Confessed Pair
Stolen money, $910 of it, was found by sheriffs of two counties who Sunday conducted a hunt in the home of one of two men awaiting sentencing in Winnebago County for 59 burglaries.

The cash was found among the workings of a living room clock, under a quantity of epsom salts in a salt box, and pushed into the hollow handle of a wax mop. Sheriff Calvin Spice said he was tipped off about the money hidden at the home of Walter Lappen, 25, 17 School St., Chilton, by a telephone caller.

Spice said the man asked if the sheriff's department was interested further about "the Lappen case." Spice said he was and the man indicated some of the money taken in the burglaries still was in the Lappen home.

The man then gave Spice the locations of the money and hung up.

$2,400 Recovered
Spice and Calumet County Sheriff C. J. Kosmosky went to the home and found $300 in a clock, $210 under the salt and $360 in the wax handle. Another $10 was found in an old desk.

A total of $2,400 in cash has been recovered from Lappen and Robert Rolf, 33, 918 Taft St., Kaukauna. The two were arrested June 24 and are charged with 59 burglaries. They have pleaded guilty in Winnebago County Court.

Car Overtakes At Intersection

3 Escape Serious Injury; Estimated Damage $3,000

A woman and her two children, on the way to evening mass Sunday, escaped serious injury when their station wagon overturned after a two-car accident at N. Meade and E. Grant streets.

Mrs. Pearce Meighan, 37, 1107 E. Moorpark Ave., and her children, Kevin, 7, and Michael, 11, were treated for cuts at Appleton Memorial Hospital shortly after 5 p.m.

The car being driven on E. Grant Street by Mrs. Meighan collided with a car being driven south on N. Meade Street by Karl J. Marx, 39, 225 S. Schaefer St.

Mrs. Meighan said she stopped at the stop sign on E. Grant Street, then entered the intersection where the accident occurred.

She said the impact "flipped" the car over on its top. She was driving a 1963 station wagon which Appleton police said was considered a $3,000 loss.

Marx was not injured in the accident. His daughter, Kathleen, 8, was treated for a cut lip.

Another Accident
An Appleton police car was involved in a two-car accident in which no one was hurt on W. College Avenue about 11 p.m. Sunday.

Patrolman Clarence L. Denny, 38, 903 W. Packard St., patrolling on W. College Avenue in the squad car was involved in a head-on accident with a car being driven by Joseph E. O'Rourke, 43, Fond du Lac.

Police said the patrol car was struck by O'Rourke's car as the O'Rourke car turned left off State Street onto College Avenue. O'Rourke was given a traffic citation for operating his car on the left side of the road.

Retired Appleton Businessman Dies

A retired Appleton businessman, Clarence A. Kasten, 67, 509 1/2 S. Brotherton in Calumet County, died Sunday morning after a short illness.

Kasten was formerly in the shoe business with his brother, Ray, and in the wholesale liquor business.

Survivors are one son, three brothers, three sisters and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Mount Olive was going to try to get his boat off the rocks. He said he thought St. Mary Cemetery a memorial is that damage to the cruiser would be established for the Heart be costly.

Survey Scheduled to Check for Elm Disease

Agriculture Officials Will Inspect Trees In Four Outagamie County Communities

A survey to determine if Dutch elm disease has gained a foothold in Outagamie County will be conducted Aug. 12-14 by county and State Department of Agriculture officials.

Jack Powers, Outagamie County agent, said today the sight survey would be made in the municipalities of Appleton, Kimberly, Little Chute and Kaukauna.

One diseased tree already has been reported in Appleton, Powers said.

The survey team will inspect the elm trees on the cities' streets. Each "suspect" will be checked for the disease and samplings will be sent to Madison for laboratory analysis.

Information Available
Powers said the survey also will attempt to turn up elm wood piles which are wintering areas for the European elm beetle, known carriers of the disease.

Powers said his office has received numerous telephone calls in the past week asking for information on the disease. He said information is available at the agent's office in the courthouse.

The disease spreads only among elm trees, Powers said, but his office has received several telephone calls indicating that other species are suspect and the caller has requested an inspection.

No Known Cure
Powers said once a tree is diseased there is no known cure. He said it is best the tree be cut down and burned. If the tree is to be saved for firewood, it is wise to debark the wood and not allow wintering places for the beetle.

Surveys in other years in the area did not produce a single case of the disease, Powers said. Recent reports in Winnebago and Brown counties have shown the disease now is in the area.

The disease does not spread rapidly in the rural areas, Powers said, because the trees are further apart than in the city areas.

State Champ Takes Top Harness Event

Overflow Crowd Present at Outagamie County Fair Races

SEYMOUR — Governor Jim, $168.75, 1. Colonel Ernest, driven by W. Marquis; 2. Grattan Jane, driven by E. Bielefeldt; 3. Dusty Rex, R. Van Schyndel; 4. Sherry Belle, I. Howlett; 5. Wild Irish Rose, David James; 6. Lola's Pride, J. Brick. Time, 2:26.

The win was a squeaker for the champ as Dick Yohn, of Fall River, engineered him past Laurel Vic, winner of the 224 pace earlier in the afternoon, and the local favorite Little Phil, driven by Bob Van Schyndel of Kaukauna.

A four-sulky tangle brought the crowd to its feet as horses entered the first turn of the afternoon's first heat.

Leon Laurent, Sturgeon Bay, veteran driver-owner of Shawnee Betty, was taken to St. Vincent Hospital in Green Bay after his horse stumbled. The close formation caused the tangle which saw one of the horses make the entire oval without his driver and pulling a battered sulky cart.

Harold Wilsman of De Pere turned in a double win behind Flash Bar. He took the sixth race of the 224 pace in 2:14.3 and the second race on a 228 trot in 2:17.

Shows Versatility
David James also took two events. He engineered Princess Par down to the wire in the eighth race and repeated his performance behind Hughes stable entry, Dianna Ashland. James showed versatility in his win since Princess Par was a trotter. She finished in 2:18 while Dianna Ashland, a pacer, turned in a bright 2:15.

Colonel Ernest, driven by Dr. William Marquis of Waunakee, was headed for an Amish community in Indiana before he was purchased earlier this year by the Marquis stables. He turned in a 2:26 time for the fourth race, a 228 trot.

First Race
First race—228 pace, Purse, $168.75. 1. Foncey's Son, driven by Fred Hicks; 2. Lucky Boy Win, Roy Kline; 3. Cecilia's Pride, L. Jones; 4. Aaron Direct, Dick Dorman; 5. Melody Baby, K. Verhelst. Time, 2:21.

Second race — 228 pace, Purse, $168.75. 1. Flash Bar, driven by H. J. Wilsman; 2. Ankaway Kid, G. E. Sanders; 3. Mister Wisco, R. Newell; 4. Prairie Son, R. W. Yohn; 5. Dusty Joe, R. Van Schyndel; 6. Sammy's Girl, J. Prevost. Time 2:17.

New Discovery Now Makes It Possible To Shrink And Heal Hemorrhoids Without Surgery

Stops Itch—Relieves Pain In Minutes

New York, N. Y. (Special): A world-famous institute has discovered a new substance which has the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids without surgery. The sufferer first notices almost unbelievable relief in minutes from itching, burning and pain. Then this substance speeds up healing of the injured tissues all while it quickly reduces painful swelling.

Tests conducted under a doctor's observations proved this so—even in cases of 10 to 20 years' standing. The secret is the new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—now offered in both ointment or suppository form called Preparation H's. In addition to actually shrinking piles—Preparation H lubricates and makes bowel movements less painful. It helps to prevent infection (a principal cause of hemorrhoids).

Only Preparation H contains this magic new substance which quickly helps heal injured cells back to normal and stimulates regrowth of healthy tissue again. Just ask for Preparation H Ointment or Preparation H Suppositories (easier to use away from home). Available at all drug counters.

Cambridge Invited To Annapolis Talks

Guardsmen Still Walk City Streets

CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP)—Gov. J. Millard Tawes invited officials of this racially scarred city of 12,200 to meet with him today in the state capital of Annapolis.

Semi-paralyzed by racial strife and a resultant military clampdown, officials of the southern-oriented city had asked the governor to come here quickly for discussions of its problems. They said they wanted to talk to Tawes about the hardships imposed by militia law invoked after six white persons were wounded in a wave of violence last week.

"I welcome opportunity to meet with you and your group but feel a better and more satisfactory meeting can be had if we meet together in my office in Annapolis this afternoon," the governor said in a telegram to Mayor Calvin W. Mowbray and other officials.

Town officials got off their wire to the governor with 400 national guardsmen posted at trouble spots and business plummeting.

The National Guard leaders among other things, decreed a 9 p.m. off-the-streets curfew, a 7 p.m. closing hour for all commercial establishments and a total ban on sale of alcoholic drink.

Members of the City Council and County Commission and the area's state legislative delegation met Sunday and drafted the wire.

Dr. Arthur Parker, president of the City Council said "The restrictions imposed by the National Guard are being used to penalize the majority in our county for the faults of the few—Negro and white."

"It is time for our elected officials to seize the offensive. The image of Cambridge cannot be maimed any more than it has been."

Press Drive
Negro integrationist leaders pressing a drive to desegregate restaurants, open up more job opportunities for their race and otherwise gain equal rights—had previously urged the governor to come here.

His aides indicated then that the time was not ripe for such a visit that local officials should be given an opportunity to handle the problem.

Attitudes on both sides appeared to be hardening today. Gloria Richardson, militant leader of the integrationists, announced that there would be some "non-violent direct action" during the day. On the other hand, a movement was under way to organize a citizens council of white persons to oppose the Negro drive. There were considerable rumblings among some segments of the white population that "this state committee will grapple with the rights and military pay raise is going too far on the side of the Negro."

Dirksen Key to '63 Civil Rights Laws

Nelson Says Senator Must End Debate, Bring Measure to Vote

BY RICHARD P. POWERS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Everett Dirksen R-Ill. as the key just how successful Dirksen may be in rallying Republican senators behind a move expected to cut off debate and bring civil rights legislation to a vote.

Nelson said today he is confident that Dirksen the Republican Senate leader, is a strong believer in equal rights and opportunities for all persons.

The question, Nelson said, is whether civil rights legislation be enacted this year.

On Hiring Practices

NAACP Will Confer With Two State Firms

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Lloyd Barbee president of the Wisconsin chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said Sunday night that representatives of his organization plan to confer this week with two large state firms on Negro hiring practices.

Barbee did not identify the firms but said that one was a national chain department store and the other a Milwaukee manufacturer of electrical units which said that the store has been charged with hiring Negroes only for menial tasks and that the industrial plant has hired very few Negroes.

The Wisconsin NAACP organization's executive board at a meeting in Milwaukee Saturday decided to do an "educational job" to show that segregation exists in some Wisconsin schools.

Barbee said. The president of the association added that he had named Morgan Gibon an assistant professor at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, as state NAACP education chairman.

Gibson, Barbee and a national NAACP official will meet July 23 with Angus Rothwell, state superintendent of public instruction, to ask for a state directive on desegregation of schools.

Report Seven Climbers All in Good Shape

Harvard Men Spotted at 17,000-Foot Level After 3-Day Search of Alaskan Mountain

TALKEETNA, Alaska (AP)—The Seven Harvard University climbers are in good shape and still scaling Mt. McKinley's Wickersham Wall, veteran bush pilot Don Sheldon reported this morning. Sheldon flew near the party at the 17,000-foot level and the climbers indicated all was well and they were continuing the climb. Sheldon spotted the group Sunday morning after a three-day search.

The climbers had last been sighted six days ago. Sheldon, well-known for mountain rescue missions, spotted the party's tracks Friday. The tracks disappeared in an avalanche. The avalanche apparently occurred after the group had passed that point, Sheldon said.

Seek Motive In Double N.Y. Slaying

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Police today sought a motive for the slaying of an attractive college coed and her date Sunday. Blonde Shari K. Smoyer, 18, Ithaca College sophomore and Jack King 17, a recent high school graduate were found shot lying side by side on a lovers' lane in suburban Pittsford. The bodies were face-down in front of King's car.

Police found five empty cartridges and a .45-caliber bullet which apparently passed through one of the bodies hit the car and fell to the ground.

Shari, daughter of William Smoyer, a Rochester real estate man lived in Perinton, a fashionable suburb of Rochester.

King son of Mr. and Mrs. George King of Genesee N.Y. worked for an asphalt paving company in suburban Brighton.

The girl was shot twice in the back. King was shot twice in the lower back and once in the back of the head.

Red Terrorism Crushed Moscow, Havana Can Write Off Ecuador as Target for Conquest

BY THOMAS J. STONE

QUITO Ecuador (AP)—Moscow and Havana can write off Ecuador—at least for the time being—as a key target for Communist conquest in South America.

Their campaign of sabotage and terrorism, directed by Castro-trained Ecuadorians, was crushed after the armed forces returned from Communist China with $25,000 and an arsenal of Red propaganda.

The military junta chose bitterly anti-Communist Col. Aurelio Naranjo as minister of national defense, responsible for the nation's internal security.

The junta's presiding officer, navy Capt. Ramon Castro Jijon, said the main objective of the armed forces was to wipe out Communists in our country. The military bosses declared they took over Ecuador because of Communist threats and Arresemena's failure to act.

Young Inmates Lacking at State Prison

Most Being Shifted To Fox Lake Cells; Operation Hampered

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
MADISON—The construction of new prison facilities in other locations in recent years has cut into the labor force of the state penitentiary at Waupun, its warden has reported to the state board of public welfare.

"Strange as it may seem," said Warden John C. Burke, the big prison is now short-handed in some of the services which traditionally have relied upon inmate labor, including some of its main tenance projects.

Prisoners Move
The transfer of many of the younger and more promising inmates to the new medium security prison at Fox Lake, and a pre-release center at Elkhorn, has tended to increase the ratio of older, hard-core and more difficult prisoners at Waupun, he related.

The median age of Waupun inmates is now about 36, higher than in many years.

Burke said he has worked out an arrangement with the state apprenticeship division to give prisoners who are being trained in job skills in the prison factories and shops, apprenticeship credit in anticipation of employment in their trades when they are released.

New Chapel
He said a new prison chapel will be built during the next year and that some of the prison industries soon will be transferred to the new institution at Fox Lake.

Burke also reported a continuation of the steady rise of the cost of operating the prison. Last year the per capita cost of keeping a prisoner rose to $147 a month, against about $135 two years earlier.

Work Okayed In Two Rivers

PSC Authorizes $750,000 Plant Improvement Plan

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
MADISON — The Public Service Commission has authorized the expenditure for a $750,000 plant improvement program at the Two Rivers municipal electric utility.

The commission explained that improvement will meet the growth needs of the community and eliminate the danger of prolonged outages in the feeder lines distributing power through the service areas of the city and its adjacent territory.

The city's electric utility buys all of its energy from the Wisconsin Public Service Corporation under an agreement.

Ten Feeders
The city has ten feeders which distribute power from the company sub-station located on the Lake Michigan shore, but increasing consumer demands have over-loaded those lines. Much of the switching equipment is being operated at near or in excess of its rated capacity, explained City Manager Robert L. Broucek and Director of Utilities D. F. Lautenstein.

The commission was told that the city based its plans on an extensive report of a firm of engineers retained to make a thorough study of its power distribution system and recommendations intended to cover existing requirements and anticipated loads "for a reasonable period into the future."

The first and most important step of the utility remodeling program will be the construction of a new bulk power supply sub-station west of the city near 22nd and Columbus streets to be supplied by a new transmission line to be provided by the Wisconsin Public Service Corporation.

All power needs of the city will be purchased at that point at primary voltage to obtain the lower costs available for such service, the commission said.

British War Secretary Paps Londoners Who Jeered Greek Royalty

LONDON (AP)—British War Secretary Joseph Godber told a Conservative party rally near London Saturday he was appalled and disgusted by the howling and jeering this week of King Paul and Queen Frederika of Greece by anti-Greek demonstrators.

"It is one thing to have opinions about the internal government of other countries and in Britain we have always prided ourselves on complete freedom of thought and expression in these matters," he said.

"It is quite another thing, however, to indulge in disorderly and riotous behavior at functions where visiting royalty are being officially received and entertained."

Reynolds Ready for Strategy Fight

Governor Must Urge Democrats To Support Budget Compromise

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — Gov. John W. Reynolds, who has won some hair-line victories in his career, today contemplates one of the most difficult strategic problems of his political life.

Unless he finds a way to persuade more of his own Democratic party associates in the state assembly to follow him in backing a tax and budget compromise, there will be a break-down in state financing that will have more severe repercussions than anything that could have befallen his administration.

Most observers are convinced that there are enough votes in the assembly amenable to a compromise solution of the financial impasse to enact it into law. The governor's problem is to assure the Republican majority that he can deliver a sufficient proportion of the Democrats to make the controversial measure a truly bi-partisan enactment.

All signs indicate that the governor's chore will be a delicate and difficult one, as he returns Monday to the task of persuading the 46 man Democratic minority which delivered only 13 votes for his bill on the first important test vote.

The Democratic members will be difficult to persuade. Most of them regard the compromise that was contrived in conferences with the Republican senate leadership as conceding too much to the Republican viewpoint on tax policy. Such "Republican" propositions should be enacted with Republican votes, the rebel Democrats feel, if the governor wants to write the complicated package into law.

The typical Republican legislator meanwhile, feels that he has no obligation to rescue a Democratic governor from an embarrassing situation, in the face of the Democratic reservations about his program.

Political Balance

The governor was aware of the delicate political balance in the legislature when he made the first overtures for a compromise resolution of the financial state-mate. He candidly admitted that there would be required to be a "one for one" ratio of Democrats and Republicans in the voting line-up. He achieved such a balance in the state senate. To repeat it in the assembly will oblige him to find at least 13 more Democrats to support his bill this week.

Republicans, meanwhile, are politically to give the appearance of being responsible for scuttling the solution to the revenue crisis, in view of the Democratic governor's clear capitulation to a large decrease on the sales tax issue upon which he campaigned successfully last fall. If the governor can deliver half or more of his own Democratic members, the chances are strong that he will find sufficient Republican votes to win the victory.

In such a situation the Republicans would be able to avoid the

Monday, July 15, 1963 Appleton Post-Crescent 85

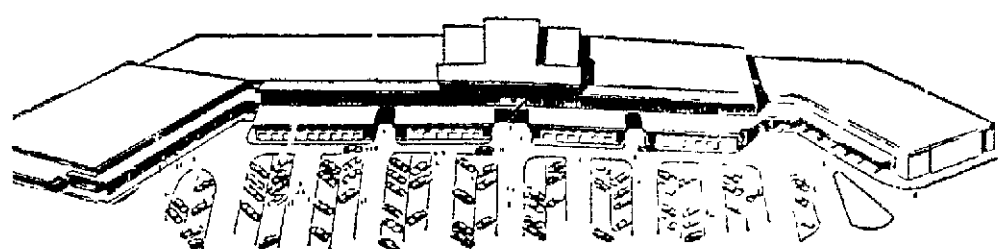

Robert Haase of Marinette stood aside from the fight during the preliminary stages last week, clearly unwilling to identify themselves with what is probably the most controversial bundle of new tax proposals ever assembled for a Wisconsin legislature. Both men are potential candidates for statewide office on the Republican ticket next year, when the tax record of the Reynolds administration will inevitably figure as a major campaign issue.

Ripon Artist Wins Top Award

OSHKOSH—The Niles Behnke Award, presented annually by Mrs. Niles Behnke in honor of her late husband, one of the state's outstanding watercolorists and former director of the Oshkosh Public Museum, was presented Sunday to John Frank of Ripon.

The award is the top prize in the Winnebago Art Fair. The sixth edition of this annual affair was held Sunday on a rain-threatened and shower-swept museum grounds. Sundry crowd-dispersing delays marred the presentation of the awards by Miss Oshkosh of 1963, Jill Bylow, Neenah. Miss Nancy Skowrenski, Neenah, Bergstrom Art Center art instructor, and Michael Brandt, Appleton, a member of the Oshkosh State College, "juried" nearly 1,000 artworks from 79 artists to select a representative piece from each artist.

From these 79, 35 were selected to hang in the public museum for the rest of the month. The judges selected 20 award winners.

The artists represented some 20 communities from 17 Fox Valley counties.

The other gold ribbon awards—each carrying a $25 cash prize—went to Mrs. Ruth Checkis, Oshkosh; Bernard Peterson, Oshkosh; Miss Barbara Koehler, Sheboygan; Miss Rosemary Michelec, Green Bay; Miss Karen Calkins, Oshkosh; and Al Bennett, Appleton.

Merchandise awards and red ribbons went to Mrs. Catherine Heintz, Oshkosh; Miss Carol Bell, Manitowoc, and Miss Dorothy ard Trier, Fond du Lac; Miss Marianne Schwantz, Green Bay; Miss Ruth Dahlman, Manitowoc; and Miss Gail Floetner, Oshkosh. As the winners were representative of the area covered by the Fox Valley Artists Association sponsored show, their works were a fair cross-section of the media employed.

Confirm Total Of 14 Cases of Elm Disease

County Agents Say 14 Others Also Suspected

OSHKOSH—Four more cases of Dutch Elm Disease in Winnebago County have been confirmed by the State Department of Agriculture Laboratory at Madison, making a total of 14 confirmed cases this year and 14 other on which laboratory tests now are being made.

The latest cases are one in Menasha, one in Oshkosh and two in the Town of Black Wolf South of Oshkosh.

The four new cases raise the total to eight in the Town of Black Wolf, four in Oshkosh, one in the Town of Neenah and one in the City of Menasha.

Special interest meetings have been scheduled in each of the municipalities in Winnebago County by V. W. Peroutky, agricultural agent, to inform interested residents and city and town officials on how best to cope with the situation.

Larry Fenton, Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Madison, will meet with each group. Meetings will be at the Neenah City Hall at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday; Memorial Building, Menasha City Park at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday, and Winnebago Village Hall, 8 a.m. Thursday.

Agents met at Menomonee Park headquarters, Oshkosh, at 9:30 a.m. today and at Omro this afternoon.

Tests

Donald Tripp, Farm Management Agent, county extension office in the Winnebago County Court House, today reported there are two or three "hot spots" of elm disease in the county and two of these are in suburban communities. He based his reports on laboratory tests

It was a somber, semi-abstract oil by John Frank of Ripon entitled "Carnival." The fair was held on the public museum grounds in Oshkosh and attended by an estimated 2,000 people. Winning paintings are on display at the museum for the rest of the month. (Post-Crescent Photos)

Menasha Mayor to Seek Fire Substation Funds

Asks Inclusion Of $70,000 in Budget for '64

MENASHA—Mayor John Klein this morning said he will ask that approximately $70,000 be included in the 1964 city budget for made in Madison of numerous elm tree cuttings. Tree cuttings are being made in areas where spraying was done for European elm beetle control. In Oshkosh, in communities, it is a study of municipal buildings where diseased trees were removed last year. The cuttings are being placed in cages with elm beetles to learn the carry over effectiveness, if any, of the insecticides applied last spring, agriculture agents revealed.

construction of a sub fire station at the intersection of Highway 47 and Airport Road at the outskirts of the City of Menasha.

The mayor said there is a definite need for a substation to serve the northern part of the city.

He estimated it will cost the city between $60,000 and $70,000. The city purchased the land for the project in 1961, but has delayed any further action on construction of the building.

Klein has continually pressed for action on the project since purchase of the site. He included in Oshkosh, in communities, it is a study of municipal buildings where diseased trees were removed last year. The cuttings are being placed in cages with elm beetles to learn the carry over effectiveness, if any, of the insecticides applied last spring, agriculture agents revealed.

The station would serve the northern portion of Menasha, which at the intersection is 2.2 miles from the main station.

Municipal Building

Consideration of construction of a new main fire station, to be incorporated with a municipal building, also is being made by city planners.

The site, three lots, is also in proximity to areas being eyed by the city for possible annexation in the not too distant future.

The station would not serve the Town of Menasha although it would be on the town-city border.

Mayor Klein has urged action on the project because of the need for "fire protection" closer to the neighborhoods.

K-C Worker Gets Bolton Essay Award

NEENAH—This year's $200 Bolton award has been awarded to an employee of the Kimberly-Clark Corp. Neenah mill, it was announced Monday.

The award was presented to Larry Runge, 615 Church St., creped wadding manufacturing understudy at the mill, Friday. Runge won the award in the essay contest sponsored by John W. Bolton and Sons, Inc., writing on this year's topic, "Who Profits from Profits?"

In presenting the award, A. L. Bolton Jr., president of the Bolton firm, stated that K-C "is one of the outstanding supporters of the Bolton essay program in the number of entries and in the number of prize winners."

Runge is the 11th K-C employee to win an award since the program was started. Previous winners have been T. H. Perry, William Herriott, E. A. Page, Roy Collar, Mark Jorgensen, Maurice Hunt, Clarence Boursa, Elroy Steinmetz, Harold Niermeyer and Andrew Rego.

The Bolton essay contest, co-sponsored by the John W. Bolton company and PIMA, began in 1944 which was the silver anniversary year of the paper mill superintendents association. Suggested subjects on common problems of interest to all employees in the industry are approved by the paper industry management group.

Winning essays each year are published in book form and go out to some 50,000 companies and individuals.

Bolton told the luncheon group that in the last five years, 40 percent of the entries have been from hourly paid employees of paper companies, 15 percent from each of the clerical, supervisory and administrative and technical groups.

Promotion Made By Menasha Corp.

MENASHA—George W. Hinton, a Menasha Corp. vice president, has been named to head a newly organized product development division for the firm. He will be succeeded at his position as general manager of the Menasha Corp. container division of Anaheim, Calif., by Bernard L. Smith. Smith was formerly general manager of Gaylord Container Division of Crown Zellerbach Corp. at Antioch, Calif.

Braves Win Second Game After 5-3 Loss

Lemaster Will Hurl Tonight

CINCINNATI (AP)—Milwaukee right-hander Bob Shaw was knocked out of the box in the first game of a doubleheader with Cincinnati as the Reds won 5-3, but came back as reliever in the victory for the Braves.

Shaw was charged with the defeat in the first game and Tony Cloninger got credit for the victory in the second.

The two teams battle again tonight with Denny Lemaster, holder of a 5-5 record, going on the mound for Milwaukee against Joe Nuxhall, who is 4-6.

Joe Torre's bases-loaded double sparked the Braves three-run first inning that put Milwaukee off and running to their victory in the second game. Home runs by Marty Keough and Vada Pinson were key blows for the Reds in the first contest.

Hit Off Jay

Torre unloaded off Joe Jay, a former Brave in the first inning of the nightcap. Norm Larker had singled and Hank Aaron and Eddie Mathews had drawn walks. Mathews scored on an infield hit by Mack Jones before Torre got his blow, and the Reds never caught up.

Shaw came in to preserve Cloninger's victory in the ninth inning when the Reds rallied. A single by Pinson, Frank Robinson's double and Charlie Neal's single had pulled the Reds to within one run when Shaw came in with one on and one out. He retired the next two batters to end the game.

Keough hit a three-run homer and Pinson had a solo blow off Shaw to give the Reds all the runs they needed in the first game. John Tsitouris was the winner although he needed help in the late innings.

Torre had a first game homer

Hill Wins First Crown Since 1961

Defeats Souchak In Playoff At Hot Springs

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Dave Hill of Jackson, Mich., defeated Mike Souchak of Grinnell, N.Y., on the second hole of a sudden death play off Sunday and picked up $3,500 first place money in the Hot Springs Open Golf Tournament.

The victory was Hill's first in a tournament since 1961 when he won the Denver and Tucson Opens.

Hill and Souchak closed the final round of the tournament with 11-under-par 277s. Hill shot a 68 for his total as he caught up with Souchak, who finished the final round with a 69.

Neck and Neck

They went neck and neck on the first extra hole. Both reached the green on their second shots. They two-putted for par fours.

On the second hole both drove to the green and landed within two feet of each other about 30 feet from the pin. Hill's putt stopped about eight inches from the cup.

Souchak rolled his second putt within two inches of the cup then Hill holed-out for the victory.

Hill said he was playing with a new set of clubs which he thought may have helped his game. He said he had taken a week off after the Cleveland Open to work on his game.

Norm Larker, Shaw Become Roommates

CINCINNATI (AP)—Notebook jottings of the Milwaukee Braves: Milwaukee manager Bobby Bragan is trying a bit of psychology on two of his players who got in a tussle in their dugout at St. Louis Friday night.

He has ordered pitcher Bob Shaw and infielder Norm Larker to be roommates for the remainder of the Braves road trip. The two tangled briefly in the dugout but neither was hurt.

Outfielder Lee May has been a key man at the plate for Milwaukee in recent games. He now shows nine hits in his last 20 times at bat and has scored eight times. He is batting .269.

The Braves now boast a 10-7 record on their current road trip. They have one more game with Cincinnati tonight, and then three with the Cubs at Chicago before returning home Friday night. Bragan said before the trip started that if the team broke even on the road he would be happy.

Chuck Bayer Shoots 71 to Share Honors With Tom Hayes

Meythaler Fires Ace, Cards Par In City Tourney

Tom Hayes and Chuck Bayer each chopped a stroke off par to pace qualifiers in the 17th annual Appleton City golf tournament Sunday with 71s.

Mark Meythaler and John Manier fired par 72s on the Reid Municipal course to share runner-up honors in the Appleton Recreation Department-sponsored tournament.

Nineteen of the 124 golfers entered will shoot their qualifying rounds next Saturday. Last Saturday's scheduled qualifying action was rained out.

Among those who have yet to shoot for medalist honors, currently shared by Chuck Bayer and Tom Hayes, are Al Baerenwald, John Lindberg, John Hurley, Rick Martinek and Owen Hurley.

Meythaler's par round (34-38) was highlighted by a hole-in-one on the par-3, 195-yard second hole. Manier shot a 35 and a 37.

Hayes finished his sub-par round with three straight birdies. That gave him a 34 on the 2-under-par 34 on the difficult back nine.

Card Eagles

Chuck Bayer carded nines of 35 and 36, including an eagle 3 on the par 5, 465-yard 10th hole. Elwin R. Berg shot an eagle 3 on the 470-yard seventh hole.

Carl Graves eagled the par-4, 335-yard 13th hole. He finished with a 73 (38-34). Tied with Graves, at 73, was Jim Hulsizer (36-37).

Dennis Babb and Syl Bayer shot 75s. Dave Wereley came in with a 76.

Paul Wullerkens led the junior qualifiers, with an 80. Bob Ness was runnerup with 83. Terry Wegner carded an 84, and Gary Schweitzer had 88.

'50-55' Golf Crown Won By McKenny

GREEN LAKE (AP)—A 74-year-old golfer from Williams Bay is the Wisconsin Public Links Senior Golf champion.

He is Carl Bjore, who had an 88 at the Tusconia Country Club Sunday. With his handicap, Bjore had a net total of 68 to take the overall title.

Tom McKenny of Appleton won the 50-55 age group title after a two-hole playoff with John Nicol of Delavan. Both finished with net scores of 69.

Ed Hoffman of Oshkosh won the 56-60 age group bracket title with a net score of 73. The 61-65 championship went to Meredith Layton of Janesville who had a net of 71.

Yesterday's Stars

PITCHING—Al Downing, Yankees gave up four hits and struck out 10 in recording his third shut-out and fifth victory since being called up from the minors last month, 5-0 over Kansas City. New York also won first game of doubleheader, 11-6.

HITTING—Dick Groat, Cardinals, collected six hits, including two doubles, in eight trips, drove doubleheader split with Chicago Cubs, St. Louis won opener 10-3, last second game 7-3.

MEXICO CITY—Sugar Ramos, 174; Cuba, outpointed Rafu King 125, 123; 15. Ramos retained world featherweight title.

PANAMA—Eugenio Hurtado, 119; Panama, outpointed Humberto Caraballo, 118, Colombia, 10.

3-Run Rally Settles Legion Contest

MARION — The Fox Valley Legion League Central Division All-Stars scored three runs in the top half of the eighth inning to score a 6-5 victory over Marion here Sunday.

The 3-run outburst followed a 4-run explosion which had put Marion into the lead in the bottom of the seventh.

Ed Szozda walked to open the eighth for the 'Stars and Dick Postel (Clintonville) and Bill Testin (Manawa) followed with sacrifice, Szozda scoring on Testin's blow.

Clintonville's Terry Dieck sacrificed the runners along before Gary Hietpas (Appleton) and Lee Lovknecht (Little Chute) connected for run-scoring singles.

Marion's 4-run rally in the seventh started with Appleton's Neil Weber as the victim. Weber walked, Dennis Sturm and gave up a single to Larry Pockat before uncorking a wild pitch. He fanned Ted Gerbig but issued walks to last four frames. The four All-Star

Marion scored in the third on walks to Beil, Sturm, and Walter Weber and an infield out.

Packer Rookies Check in; Many Are Endowed With Awsome Dimensions

Vince Pleased By Condition Of Veterans

BY LEE REMMEL
Post-Crescent News Service
GREEN BAY — "You look for speed, agility and size," Vince Lombardi declaimed in an analytical moment last season. "You may get two. If you get all three you have a great football player."

He was speaking in this instance of linemen, but obviously would welcome these qualities elsewhere. The next few weeks will determine whether his 1963 rookies, just arrived upon the scene, are blessed with the first two requisites, but there can be no question about the third.

A surprising number of freshmen endowed with awesome dimensions (including several backs and ends) were in evidence when the first year men officially reported for duty at the world champions' St. Norbert College training camp Sunday evening.

They were joined by a dozen early-bird veterans, including former Los Angeles Ram Urban Henry and ex-St. Louis Cardinal Frank Mestnik, both signed as free agents.

Sleek Condition

Equally as impressive as their imposing proportions was the generally sleek condition of the rookies, of which the mountainous Henry is a prime example. Considered a leading contender to replace the traded Bill Quinlan at left end, the 6-4 Georgia Tech alumnus appears in the neighborhood of 250 but actually scales a whopping 273 pounds.

Heavyweight of the group, at least at this point, is swarthy Luis Hernandez, 6-foot, 275-pound guard from Texas Western.

Other solid citizens included former De Pere High and erstwhile Manitowish Chief tackle Doug Brizek, 255; Lionel Albridge, the Packers' No. 4 draft choice from Utah State, an impressively stacked 253; Dan Grimm, thick-set University of Colorado guard, who scaled 250; Jan Barrett, burly Fresno State end, 246; and Ed Holler, U. of South Carolina linebacker, and Marv Fleming, incredibly muscular.

Dodgers' 6 1/2-Game Lead Is Biggest League Has Seen in 2 Years

Podres Hurls Win Over Philadelphia; Cubs, Cards Divide

BY BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The last time the Los Angeles Dodgers made a swing through the East their usually mild-mannered boss, Walter Alton, got just a little snippy. Said he was tired of being asked when he was going to be fired.

That was a couple of months ago. The Dodgers were in fifth place and four games out.

The Dodgers are now on another Eastern swing. They've won seven straight, own the largest lead the National League has seen in two years — 6 1/2 games, their pitching is shaping up as the best in baseball and Walter's just as pleasant as can be.

No one is asking him when he's going to be fired.

The Dodgers extended their string 3-2 behind Johnny Podres' Sunday in the rain-shortened first game of a scheduled doubleheader at Philadelphia. The second game was postponed.

Giants Rained Out

The victory added a half game to the Dodgers lead over second-place San Francisco, rained out in a scheduled doubleheader at Pittsburgh. It's the largest lead any team in the National has had since two years ago today when the Reds led the Dodgers by six games.

Houston extended the New York Mets' losing string to 15 games, 8-3 in a game that was halted by rain in the eighth. A scheduled second game was postponed. Milwaukee held off Cincinnati 7-6 in the second game after the Reds had won the opener 5-3. St. Louis romped to a 10-3 victory over Chicago, then lost 7-3.

Podres, a lefthander on a comeback, now is 8-6 and teams with Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale to give the Dodgers perhaps the best front-line pitching in baseball.

His triumph at Philadelphia was his fourth straight victory, all by one run, and his fourth complete game. The game was called at the end of six innings.

Houston built a seven-run first inning around John Baleman's bases-loaded triple and coasted in against the hapless Mets. The game was called after Frank Thomas hit a two-run homer in the Met eighth.

The Card-Cubs split left St. Louis .001, behind Chicago in their struggle for third place. The Cards got 16 hits, four by Dick

LC-K Whacks 12 Hits, Beats All-Stars, 11-5

Mehlberg Pitches Win; Attack Led By Jim Peerenboom

BY JIM HARP
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

FREEDOM—Little Chute-Kimberly raked four All-Star pitchers for 12 hits and was gifted with eight walks in posting a 11-5 victory over the Fox River Valley League star squad here Sunday afternoon.

Paye Mehlberg held the All-Stars in check, limiting them to one run on three hits through the first six innings. He weakened in the late frames and the stars managed to score three in the seventh and one in the ninth.

Little Chute-Kimberly lost little time in scoring as two runs crossed the plate in the first inning, two more in the third, one in the fourth and a clinching five in the sixth.

Bill Lappen, of Kaukauna, started for the all-stars, and he was followed by Bill Prickette, Fond du Lac, in the fourth; Garry Zentner, Oshkosh in the sixth and Howie Manthey, Freedom, in the sixth. Prickette and Zentner had the most trouble finding the plate as they issued seven of the eight walks between them. Zentner was charged with the loss.

Jim Peerenboom led the hit parade for LC-K with 3-for-5, a double and two singles. Rog Vander Wist, Hank Peerenboom and Mehlberg had two hits apiece for the winners.

The LC-K hits included five doubles, two by Hank Peerenboom.

The All-Stars had four extra base hits. Rog Gerrits, of Freedom, doubled and scored the first all-star run in the fourth. Jerry Daanen, of Morrison, doubled and scored in the seventh. John Gores, of Fond du Lac, had a triple and drove in a pair of runs in the seventh. Ken Huebner, of Freedom, tripled and scored in the ninth.

The 5-run outburst by LC-K in the sixth included a 2-run 2-bagger by Vander Wist and doubles by Hank and Jim Peerenboom.

Make a 'People Tree' From Magazine Cutouts

BY CAPPY DICK

A "people tree" is a novelty boys and girls will have fun making. As the name implies, it's a tree with a lot of people in it.

poses. Cut them out. All should be of about the same size. Include animals, if you wish. After accumulating a lot of pictures, paste them on thin cardboard and cut them out again.

Transparent Tape
Attach them to the branches of your tree by means of transparent tape or fine wire. Some should be shown hanging from branches, others should be sitting on branches and others standing on branches. The more people you add to the tree, the more interesting it will be for your friends to examine.

Keep the tree in a corner of your room.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it: AXYDLBAAR is LONGFELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Lesson in English

BY W. L. GORDON

Words often misused: Do not say, "He is the one whom I think was there." Say, "He is the one who I think was there."

Often mispronounced: Photographure. Pronounce foe-foe-gra-vyur, principal accent on last syllable.

Often misspelled: Fuchsia (shrub); observe the "chs," pronounced "fyu-sha."

Synonyms: Virtue, morality, rectitude, integrity, uprightness, probity.

Word study: "Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day.

Today's word: Dudgeon; ill humor. (Pronounce duh-junn, accent first syllable). "The family had to tolerate the dudgeon of the father."

Let's EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By Sylvanus M. Duvall, Ph.D. and Evelyn M. Duvall, Ph.D.

No say psychologists not on the hook! "Why Some Women first to the newborn babe his toes are no more part of himself than the side of his crib. By six months he is beginning to study his fingers and toes, but apparently does not know that they are his. Those who have studied this matter feel that not until about 15 months can the baby distinguish between himself and the objects outside himself. Not until he begins to talk does this distinction begin to develop rapidly.

Marriage can solve a woman's loneliness. Probably. Unlikely. Unlikely. Loneliness is as much a state of mind as a state of matrimony. The lonely person who makes a poor adjustment to others wherever she (or he) is isn't likely to find happiness ever after in marriage. Research studies find that it is the well-adjusted individual who makes the best marriage adjustment. Unless a woman has within herself the qualities that companionship requires she can be lonely, even in marriage. Marriage is a relationship, a way of life, not a cure-all for lonely hearts.

This subject is further discussed in the booklet "Why Some Women first to the newborn babe his toes are no more part of himself than the side of his crib. By six months he is beginning to study his fingers and toes, but apparently does not know that they are his. Those who have studied this matter feel that not until about 15 months can the baby distinguish between himself and the objects outside himself. Not until he begins to talk does this distinction begin to develop rapidly.

Spoiled Meat Roils Up Men On Dakotas

BY TV SCOUT

6:30-7:30 (Channel 11) — The Dakotas repeats a solid dramatic hour with equal portions of motion and emotion. In an Army post, 26 men die from eating spoiled meat. The surviving soldiers, especially one whose two brothers died, are spoiling for revenge against Bert Freed, who sold the meat to the Army.

6:30-8:30 (Channel 4-5) — "An Affair to Remember," the repeat on Monday Night at the Movies, is a slick, well-acted comedy drama held firmly in the capable hands of Deborah Kerr and Cary Grant. (Color)

7:30-8 (Channel 2) — The Lucy Show repeat is almost too silly, but that won't stop you from laughing Lucy and Vivian Vance, den mothers for a Cub Scout group, help build a sugar cube replica of the White House.

7:30-8 (Channel 11) — George Fenneman, the host of Your Funny, Funny Films, presents two serious home movies — which turned out to be comedy. The first is a drama about the life of Rasputin, made by members of an art class who wanted an interest outside the classroom. The second funny bit was made five years ago by a trapeze artist and his wife, who wanted to study their movements to perfect their act.

8-8:30 (Channel 2) — The Danny Thomas Show repeat is another filmed-in-Rome outing Danny and his wife (Marjorie Lord) to elude Danny's agent (Sheldon Leonard) so they can see the real Rome.

9-9:30 (Channel 4-5) — David Brinkley's Journal has a repeat that is more timely now than when it was first seen last October. It's a study of segregation in reverse as Brinkley, with typical perception studies Mound Bayou, Miss., an all Negro town. (Color)

9-10 (Channel 11) — Legal and medical problems are intertwined on the Ben Casey repeat, and the result is a show that needs a doctor and a lawyer — and a new script.

Musical Plays Boom Back in Favor Again

New Arena Theater, Melodyland, Now Across Street From Disneyland

BY BOB FROMAS

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP)—If you don't see a musical play this summer, it may be that you just aren't trying.

Not since the Golden Era when every American community had its own vaudeville house and stock company has so much lively entertainment been available and good entertainment, too. In barns, tents, auditoriums and in the fresh summer air, topnotch shows are being presented with well-known stars and casts that are professional or eager, or both.

Some enthusiasts see the trend as a major renaissance in the living theater. Nowhere is the trend better illustrated than here in Anaheim.

A somnolent Orange County town of 11,000 in 1940, it has been converted by Walt Disney and the postwar boom into a city of 144,000. Two veteran showmen are hoping to convert that boom into a year-round theater operation that would do credit to Broadway.

Named Melodyland

The showmen Sammy Lewis, longtime operator of Slapsy Maxie's now producer of shows for Las Vegas, Danny Dare, producer of stage musicals ("Meet the People") and movies ("Road to Rio," "Incendiary Blonde").

Grange Picnic Set

GREENVILLE — The state Grange picnic will be held July 21 at the South Greenville Grange Hall with the youth committee under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford as hosts.

Advance Money

"It's the most beautiful theater of its kind in America," enthused Lewis who gave its cost at $1.5 million.

"Nothing like it," agreed Dare. Both were high on their chances of success.

"We had an advance for $300,000 before the season began," said Lewis.

"And $250,000 of it came from Orange County," said Dare.

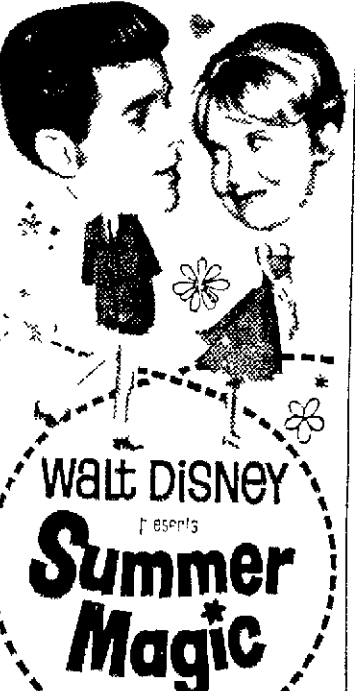

That proves there is an audience for theater here. One of our best is that lots of engineers and scientists have moved down here to work in the big industrial plants. These people are starved for something cultural."

The culture they are offered is a good slice of the best of recent

Legislators Question Motives of Utilities Who Backed Tax Relief

BY JOHN WYNG, AARD
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

MADISON—Legislators on both sides of the political aisle last week expressed perplexity about the hard fight made by the public utility corporations for the retention of the property tax relief granted to them and all other property taxpayers in the sales tax act of two years ago.

Why should these companies fight so anxiously to retain the $9 million or so in biennial property tax cuts, Republicans and Democrats asked again and again, although in the end they endorsed a continuation of the benefit?

Removing such benefits would increase their cost of doing business, but the corporations could apply to the public service commission for higher rates, one after another speculated.

The real reason for the stubborn fight of the utilities is that they have grave doubts about the attitude of the commission on such a question.

In the first place, they explained, prosecuting a rate case is costly. In the second place, there is an inevitable lag in making up revenues in such a fashion.

But more important than these objections was the doubt in the minds of the corporation managers that the public service commission under its present political alignment would permit rates to a compromise. But it is doubtful rise because utility tax liability has increased.

The impression prevails that the commission which is now headed by Chairman Leonard Bessman, would be extremely skeptical if not hostile.

Lobbyists for the bankers and building and loan companies, meanwhile are aggrieved about a fast play in the so-called compromise tax bill that was as embarrassing for them as it was costly for their clients.

Under the most extreme pressure, the two historically rival groups got together and worked out an amendment for the taxation of financial institutions that would raise $1.7 million, and agreed upon the distribution of the burden upon the two kinds of businesses.

But after their agreement they were chastened to learn that the Republican Democratic fiscal negotiators had accepted their formula but raised the ante to call for an additional million dollars of taxation. Those are the incidents that make dues-paying clients wonder what their lobbyists are really doing.

Two months ago politicians excitedly filled the capitol with speech echoes and the press galleries with publicity releases on their demands for federal action to award more mileage to Wisconsin in the federal "Interstate" highway system.

Among other things, the legislature sent a formal resolution in Washington, and Gov. Reynolds called upon the Secretary of Commerce to make a pitch.

Last week the national government replied, in a letter to the legislature and the governor from the Secretary of Commerce. The answer was not unexpected, but hardly anybody noticed it. The letter was polite but firm. There is no chance for additional mileage, it related.

For two years the Legislative Council worked and spent money on a total revision of the ancient and complex land drainage laws of the state.

Last week the end results probably went down the drain when the state senate adopted an amendment insisted upon by the conservation department, but which had already been rejected by the assembly.

Normally such a stalemate would call for a conference committee arrangement to work out a compromise. But it is doubtful that there is enough time remaining, or enough patience in the tired legislature, to make the attempt this year.

The state is now nominally committed to participation on an official basis in the New York World's Fair next year but there remains some doubt about the size or variety of its exhibitions.

The legislation recently enacted sets up a commission without funds. Whatever money is available will be solicited from private sources, and the time is already late, in the view of some interested persons.

The fact of the state participation results from the insistence of Lt. Gov. Jack Olson, who will be executive chairman of the commission and the principal fund solicitor. Gov. Reynolds will be honorary chairman.

The performance of the beer industry in forcing the deletion of a higher beer tax from the compromise state revenue bill last week was almost a classical political operation.

No commercial interest this year showed such depth of penetration and such infinite pains in arousing all possible allies to apply pressure upon the legislature.

One representative of a sizeable county reported that he had received communications, most of them by telephone, from every tavern operator in his county. Unions, distributors, beer depots and all other elements of the trade combined in the supreme effort of the brewers to defeat the one dollar a barrel additional tax proposed.

Texas Doctor Named Chairman of Surgery Department at UW

MADISON (AP)—The University of Wisconsin board of regents has ended a long controversy by appointing Dr. Robert C. Hickey, 47, of the University of Texas, as the chairman of the Wisconsin Medical School's department of surgery.

Dr. Hickey, a professor of surgery, has been named to succeed the late Dr. Erwin R. Schmidt, who retired two years ago. He will take over his new post Sept. 1.

Dr. John Z. Bowers was fired by the regents in 1961 when a dispute between him and the surgical faculty over a successor to Schmidt broke into the open. Dr. Bowers picked Dr. John Cole of Cleveland but the faculty blocked the appointment. The staff favored Dr. Anthony Curreri, a cancer specialist, for the post, but he was asked that he be removed from consideration.

The board also approved the appointment of Earl S. Beard as the first director of the university's center at Sheboygan.

Reynolds Orders Several Changes In Budget-Tax Bill

Willing to Replace Certain
Levies to Placate Democrats

BY JOHN WYNGAARD
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

MADISON — Gov. John Reynolds today ordered emergency repairs on his badly battered tax-budget compromise bill to coax the reluctant Wisconsin Assembly to accept the measure it rejected in a top-heavy vote last week.

The governor told a news conference that he will offer important changes to meet the objections of his own Democratic party members and others intended to get more support from the Republican majority lawmakers.

Hopefully, he said he believes the measure can be put through the Assembly by Wednesday, whereupon it will be required to run the gauntlet of the State Senate again. Assemblymen returned to their seats late today.

Gov. Wallace Says U. S. Near 'Civil Warfare'

Attacks Kennedy's
'Inept Handling' of Racial Problems

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. George Wallace of Alabama said today that inept handling of racial problems by the Kennedy administration has resulted in "a nation torn by strife and turmoil on the brink of civil warfare."

Wallace, who failed in his "schoolroom door" stand against integration at the University of Alabama, said that if Congress passes a public accommodations bill, "You should make preparations to withdraw all our troops from Berlin, Viet Nam and the rest of the world because they will be needed to police America."

New Sales Taxes
Reynolds said he is willing to replace some sales taxes, such as on electricity and heat, in order to placate hesitant Democrats. He would cover the revenue requirement by a series of new taxes on dry cleaning and laundry services, intra-state telephone calls, the servicing of taxable commodities as automobiles and soft drinks.

Because Republicans seem to be concerned about giving the personal property taxpayer a break, he said he will offer a plan for a 70 per cent reduction in personal property tax assessments of inventories and farm livestock, instead of the 50 per cent cut achieved two years ago.

To finance that program, he will suggest adding to the sales tax list, business machinery and equipment, construction equipments to withdraw all our troops from Berlin, Viet Nam and the rest of the world because they will be needed to police America.

The higher income tax proposal.

Khrushchev Jovial at Start Of Nuclear Test Ban Talks

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev talks today with Britain's Lord Hailsham in the former's Kremlin office prior to opening of nuclear test ban talks among Russian, British and United States representatives. With

Lord Hailsham is British Ambassador Sir Humphrey Trevelyan. Khrushchev meets this afternoon with Lord Hailsham, British science minister, and W. Averell Harriman, U. S. undersecretary of state.

British, U. S. Delegates Trade Humorous Remarks With Soviet Party Boss

MOSCOW (AP) — Jovial and apparently optimistic, Premier Khrushchev personally opened talks today on a limited nuclear test ban agreement with special envoys of President Kennedy and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Sitting in a Kremlin conference room with U.S. Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman and Britain's Lord Hailsham, the Soviet leader quipped: "Shall we start off by signing the agreement right away?"

Harriman shoved a pencil and pad across the table toward Khrushchev. Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko grinned to his chief and said: "Sign it and leave it to be filled in."

10 Days
The conference is expected to last 10 days. Khrushchev's mood seemed to share the optimism of both the British and Americans about the success in agreeing on a prohibition which would bar nuclear test explosions in the air, in space and under water.

The Western side saw no prospect of getting a complete ban to cover underground explosions also.

Increasing the prospects for an agreement was the worsening split between the Soviet Union and Red China, Westerners here believed.

News photographers were allowed to enter the conference room before the actual talks began to take pictures of the negotiators.

The conference began with nine representatives on the U.S. and British side and five on the Soviet side.

Geneva Veteran
On the Soviet side in addition to Gromyko and Khrushchev was Semyon Tsarapkin, a veteran of the Geneva nuclear ban talks.

On the British-American side were Hailsham, Harriman, U. S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler, Sir Humphrey Trevelyan, the British ambassador, and a number of other advisers.

The room was different from that in which Khrushchev had met Hailsham Monday morning. It was much larger and the table was at least 30 feet long. It was covered with green cloth. Red pencils and white pads and green microphones dotted the table.

Pictures of Marx and Lenin and a map of the universe hung on the wall. Bottles of mineral water stood between the pads and pencils.

Khrushchev was again in a jovial mood.

Message Expected to Say Time

Deadlocked Communist Talks

3 Runaway Children Shot to Death

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (AP) — Three runaway foster children were shot to death in a 7,000-foot high Arizona pine forest next to busy U.S. Route 66 because they had lost $150.

The man who gave them the money — a lifelong acquaintance — admitted Sunday he killed the three Negro children.

Today Robert Alford, also a Negro, is on his way back to Williams where Arizona authorities have charged him on three counts of murder.

Sunday night he stayed overnight in Stockton, Calif., where May 27 he had picked up the children.

Arizona investigator Dennis G. Smith said the children were en route with Alford to Wewoka, Okla.

Smith said Alford claims he remembers only that he reached for two pistols he had under the seat and then "coming to" sitting in a road, an empty gun in each hand.

The children, Carol Ann McCain, 14, and Teddy, 13, and Jacqueline Walker, 11, had gone willingly with Alford, Smith said.

MOSCOW (AP)—Diplomats predict the Soviet and Communist Chinese negotiators will conclude their deadlocked ideological talks soon with a meaningless face-saving communique assuring that time will heal the differences in the Communist camp.

The seriousness of the split between the Communist giants was emphasized by publication Saturday of a 35,000-word Soviet Communist party statement accusing the Chinese of being hypocrites and warmongers bent on a nuclear war with the West.

The Soviet statement, an open letter to the Communist parties of the world, was an official reply to the Chinese attack June 14 on Premier Khrushchev's policy of spreading communism by living in peace with the West. It was spread over four pages of the party newspaper Pravda.

Pravda also published the Communist Chinese letter, disclosing to the Soviet people for the first time the extent of the historic rift.

Sue Hantsman, 15, jumped to the ground from the second floor and was hospitalized with injuries that were not believed serious.

Fire Chief Harold Chartier said the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hantsman, were not home at the time.

Britain Warns Guiana to Halt Race Turbulence

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP) — Britain has warned British Guiana's leading politicians they will have to make peace and end racial turbulence if they want Britain to give the South American colony independence.

British Colonial Secretary Duncan Sandys gave the warning shortly before his departure Sunday for London after spending four days trying to mediate differences between pro-Communist Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan and his chief political opponent, Forbes Burnham.

In a radio broadcast, Sandys appealed to the Guianans to end the bitter strife between the country's East Indian majority and the large Negro minority.

Sandys said Britain would give no thought to granting independence or a new constitution unless there is a political settlement to insure internal peace.

Sandys failed to forge a coalition government. Informed sources said Jagan and Burnham couldn't agree on distribution of cabinet posts.

Liberal Vs. Conservative Fight

Rocky Challenges Goldwater for '64 Nomination

BY JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has challenged Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., to an all-out liberal vs. conservative fight for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination.

In a policy statement tantamount to announcing his candidacy, the New York governor said Sunday the Goldwater strategy is to try to weld conservative, Southern and Western support while writing off Northern states. Thus, Rockefeller said, "would not only defeat the Republican party in 1964 but would destroy it altogether."

Rockefeller said it was incredible that the Republicans would offer such an alternative to the "unprincipled opportunism that has captured the Democratic party."

He added: "That alternative will never be found in a party of extremism, a party of sectionalism, a party of racism, a party that disclaims responsibility for most of the population before it

even starts its campaign for their support."

Unannounced Belligerent
Goldwater, who was not named in the statement, made no immediate response. But associates said they interpreted Rockefeller's attack as a declaration of war they were certain the senator would accept, even though he remains an unannounced belligerent.

They added that if Goldwater is writing off the industrial North as Rockefeller charged, the New York governor is giving up on Republican chances to collect electoral votes in the South.

Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., a Goldwater rooster, chided Rockefeller. He said it is "no time for anger or name-calling among Republicans."

"Sen. Goldwater is the leading candidate because he squarely challenges the New Frontier ideology and performance," Curtis said. "He is not a sectional candidate."

Rockefeller's blast is regarded in Washington as the opening gun of a vigorous comeback campaign for the nomination. He was considered by many observers the leading contender until his recent marriage to a divorced mother of four children.

Midwest Speeches
In the period between his reelection as governor last year and his remarriage, Rockefeller tried with some success to warm up the conservatives to his cause by making what many of his listeners called "good Republican speeches" in the Midwest.

But the New York governor's attack on what he said were extremist views in the party indicated he has decided his best chance for the nomination is to champion the liberal viewpoint and sharpen his division with the conservatives.

This seemed to leave open the middle ground where Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio said Sunday Sen. Thruout E. Morton, R-Ky., comes closest among possible presidential nominees to representing the party consensus.

Taft, son of the late conservative senator from Ohio who lost the presidential nomination to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1952, said on a television program that neither Rockefeller nor Gold-

A Hungry Northern swallowed two chubs on separate lines about 3:30 p.m. Saturday on Pine Lake, Waushara County, to bring about some confusing circumstances. Robert Woolsey, left, route 1, Weyauwega, and his brother, Fred Woolsey, route 1, Waupaca, both caught the fish. They entered the Post-Crescent's Master Angler contest as a team. # Two Weyauwega Men Land 21-Pound 'Lunker'

Northern Takes Bait on Lines of Brothers in Waushara County Lake

WAUPACA — One of the Waupaca area lakes gave up one of its "lunkers" about 3:30 p. m. Saturday when brothers Fred and Robert Woolsey, both of whom decided to lend a helping line by route 1, Weyauwega, boated a 21-pounder in his own line. With the pound, 14-ounce northern pike on two fishermen working together on Pine Lake, Waushara County, the big fish was "horsed" in with no trouble.

When the fish finally was boated, the fishermen noticed both lines coming out of its huge mouth.

The brothers had trouble bringing the fish back to Waupaca for an official weigh-in as all of the spectators on the beach wanted to pose with it.

Enters Contest

Fred said he normally does not enter fishing contests, but he entered the Post-Crescent's Master Angler contest because it was the biggest Northern he had ever seen.

After weighing the fish at the Waupaca Fruit Store, the two anglers opened the fish and both chubs were found deep in its gullet.

Because the fish swallowed both of their baits, neither brother claims the fish. They said they both caught it and produced the fish to prove it.

Lends Helping Line

The 43-inch fish was first felt on Robert's line. Fred, after his brother announced he had one hooked, started reeling in his line to avoid getting the lines tangled. Shortly, he thought it was too

Blaze Burns Through Roof Before Men Can Reach Scene

FOREST JUNCTION — Fire destroyed the Village Cafe at the about 3:20 a.m. today. A truck driver discovered the fire and alerted Robert Kleehn Jr., who called the Forest Junction Volunteer Fire Department.

The blaze had broken through the roof of the two-story frame building before firemen arrived. In addition to the building and restaurant equipment, personal effects of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Stehane, food and an automobile parked outside were destroyed.

No estimate was made of the loss and the cause is unknown. However, faulty wiring is considered a likely cause.

Stehane told firemen that he closed his restaurant at 2 a.m. today.

The Stehanes took over management of the cafe last September. The structure had been used as a cage for some years. It originally was constructed as a filling station in the 1930's.

Descendants of Couple to Mark Their Anniversary

SCANDINAVIA — Descendants of the late Johan and Signi Trunrud will mark the 100th wedding anniversary celebration of their ancestors July 27 and 28.

The celebration will begin Saturday with a dance at the Scandinavia Community Hall. A family gathering will be held at 11 a.m. Sunday at the picnic grove in Scandinavia.

The Trunruds were both immigrants from Gulbrandelson, Norway, and were married in the old Scandinavia Lutheran Church, July 23, 1863. Mrs. Amelia Bestul, 89, and Mrs. Clara Sheveland, 76, both of Scandinavia, are the only two members of the immediate family living.

Second generation members of the family living are Thomas, Carl, Martin, Albert, Teman and Alfred Trunrud. There are 350 third generation members of the family living.

Two Men Injured In Cycle Accident Near Waupaca

WAUPACA — Two young men were injured about 6:50 p.m. Friday when the motorcycle they were riding went out of control on County E, five miles north-east of Waupaca, and knocked out four fence posts and rolled up in the barbed wire.

Undersheriff William Mork said Charles Young, 22, Joliet, Ill., driver of the motorcycle was seriously injured with cuts, bruises and concussion. He was taken to the Waupaca Memorial Hospital by Holly ambulance.

William Haight, 23, Manawa, escaped with a cut lip. He was riding behind Young on the motorcycle.

Undersheriff Mork said the motorcycle was going south when it came to a curve to the right. It swerved to the east shoulder and traveled 204 feet before crossing back to the west ditch where it hit the fence posts. It travelled 108 feet in the west ditch. Haight went to a nearby farm to call for help while Young was unconscious.

Three Rural Mail Boxes Hit By Explosions

WAUPACA—Three rural mailboxes were destroyed by "bomb-like" explosions about 1:45 a.m. Friday, according to the sheriff's department.

County Police Capt. Royal Myhill, who investigated the bombings, said one of the farmers reported hearing what sounded like a "shotgun." The back end of one of the mailboxes was found 40 feet from the box.

All of the bombings were in the area of County D and E, on the Waupaca - Outagamie county line. The farms are owned by Wallace Grunwald, Wallace Nysse and Edwin Danke.

'Bombs' to be Dropped on Calumet County in Promotion

CHILTON — Thousands of balloons carrying more than 1,000 gilt certificates will be dropped from an airplane beginning Tuesday as a feature of the Chilton Chamber of Commerce Crazy Daze sales promotion.

The gilt certificates to be dropped from the skies are valued at more than $5,000 in the fourth annual event.

A local pilot, Wallace Gebhart, will carry out the aerial portion of the promotion. Beginning Tuesday morning the balloons will be dropped over the Pipe, Calumetville, Brotherhood and Stockbridge area.

Later in the morning the communities of Hilbert, St. John and Sherwood will be "bombed". In the afternoon Tuesday the plane will circle the Marytown and St. Cloud area delivering a similar cargo.

Potter, Rantoul and Brillion will be the target areas Wednesday morning with New Holstein and Kiel scheduled for Wednesday afternoon. The sale opens Thursday and continues through the weekend.

Appleton Man Records Top Count In Central Archery League Shoot

WAUPACA — Fair weather and interesting target locations brought 141 archers to the King Archers' Central Wisconsin Field Archery league shoot Sunday at the Chain O'Lakes Conservation Club near Parfreyville.

It was the best attended league shoot so far this season. The host club had 28 cardboard deer silhouettes on the official range and offered a 15-target small game course for the archers who spent the day on the range. The novelty shoots included a carp event, egg shoot and ping-pong ball.

Dun Bodway, Appleton, turned in the day's top count with a 394 in the men's sight division. He was followed by a 380 by Howard Kisilewski, Menasha, and a 378 by James Miller, Menasha.

Barebow Division

In the men's barebow division, John Schoenick, Clintonville, took the honors with a 364, followed by a 346 by Norman Matheson.

Manawa Fire Company Called To Grass Blaze

MANAWA—The Manawa Fire Department was called to a grass fire at 4:45 p.m. Thursday at Cedar Lake, Town of Union, when approximately a 150-foot area on the north side of the lake was burned by a fire in a brush pile.

Tuesday night and Thursday morning, one of the department trucks was on stand-by alert at the Arlyn Buchholz and William Breier farms, when hay in the barns reached combustible stage of over 200 degrees.

The truck remained at the Buchholz farm four hours Tuesday, while Little Wolf firemen and neighbors pitched hay from the mow that had reached 210 degrees. Gas fumes made it necessary to administer oxygen to those working in the barn.

Thursday, the truck was on stand by at the Breier farm three hours while firemen and neighbors carried out the same procedure.

1933 Little Wolf Class Has Reunion At New London

MANAWA — The class of 1933, Little Wolf High School, met at the Rainbow Supper Club, New London, for its reunion. David Nolan, Appleton, who was vice president of the class, was master of ceremonies. There were 65 guests in attendance including the class faculty, Mr. and Mrs. Leo D. Hershberger, Manawa; Miss Irene Cleaves, Iola, and Mr. Roy Bloomquist, Clintonville.

Symco Parish Will Have Public Dinner

MANAWA — St. Mark Lutheran Church congregation, Symco, will serve a public beef and ham dinner Sunday beginning at 11:30 a.m., in celebration of the seventh anniversary of the church.

Horse Takes Opportunity To Beat Heat

STOCKBRIDGE — Even a horse has the right to beat the heat these days.

And while he's at it, he may as well be of some service to his kindly owners — like serving as a diving platform when they swim.

Lucky, a gentle 9-year-old quarter horse, is the pride and joy of the three youngest children of Mr. and Mrs. Gib Schoen. Stockbridge Harbor tavernkeepers, and he likes to get into the swim of things. Nancy, 11, put on her bathing suit one hot day this summer and rode Lucky bareback into Lake Winnebago, which is practically in the backyard of the Schoen home.

Lucky took to the water like a duck so now he's a regular fixture when Nancy, Mary, 13, and Steve, 7, head for the lake to take a dip. The gentle horse wades out chin-deep, then stands placidly while the youngsters dive and slide off his back as they frolic in the water. The horse seems to enjoy the almost daily activity.

The Schoen kids, who have had Lucky for almost a year, are sure he is the coolest, wettest and cleanest horse around.

Plans for Larger Conservation Unit Begin at Fremont

FREMONT — An effort to organize smaller conservation clubs of the area into a larger and more active unit began here Thursday evening.

The new organization will be called the Lake Partridge and Paygan Restoration Association, and will have members from the Tustin, Poy Sippi, Fremont, Bloomfield and Zittau areas.

One of the primary plans is to reestablish a system of raising pheasants, as the Fremont group has done in past years.

Officers of the Fremont conservation club were Willard Stuebs, president; Gary Looker, secretary-treasurer; John Looker, Leander Arndt and A. M. Sader, members of the board of directors.

Planning for the new organization will continue July 23 at the Fremont village hall.

Wittenberg Club Sees Films on Trout, Canoe Trip

WITTENBERG — "Brook Trout Facts and Figures", a film from the Wisconsin Conservation Department, was shown at the meeting of the Wittenberg Fish and Game Club. Ronald Jacobson also showed movies of his canoe trip down the Oconto River.

Roland Wiseman, Morris Nelson, Peter Johnson, James Schaar, Curt Inderdahl, Milton Voelz and Norman Rades volunteered to work at the Shawano County Conservation picnic Aug. 11 at the county park.

A stream improvement project will be held Monday night when members will work at the Grappl dam site.

Clintonville Fire Chief's Father Dies Sunday

CLINTONVILLE — Hanson DuFrane, 196 Bennett St., died early Sunday morning. He is believed to have suffered a heart attack in bed.

The retired railroad employee is survived by his son, Edward, chief of the Clintonville Volunteer Fire Department.

Services will be held at the Heuer and Sievers Funeral Home at 2 p.m. Tuesday. The Rev. Bernard Kassilke, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Clintonville will officiate. Burial will be in Graceland Cemetery.

Shawano Man Drowns in Lake Sunday

Four persons, including a 67-year-old Shawano man, drowned in separate accidents in Wisconsin Sunday.

Bert Huntington, 67, Shawano, route 2, drowned while fishing on the north shore of Shawano Lake Sunday morning.

Huntington, who was standing in his boat casting, fell from the side and the boat drifted away from him. He attempted to swim back to the boat but was unable to do so.

Other fishermen in the vicinity saw Huntington fall but were unable to reach him.

No Life Jacket
Authorities said that he had no life jackets in the boat but was wearing one when he fell into the water. Shawano County Sheriff Les Foesch recovered the body from 12 feet of water.

Huntington was a retired logger living on Shawano Lake. The accident occurred in front of his home.

Robert Falconer, 18, Rockford, Ill., drowned in Rock Lake at Lake Mills when he fell while water skiing. A strap on his life preserver broke and he went down in 50 feet of water. Gene Bruntschmid, 15, Jump River, Rusk County, drowned in Little Rice Lake when he fell out of a boat. He was trying to fix a stalled motor. When it started, the boat lurched forward and Bruntschmid was thrown overboard.

Charmaine Plesko, 18, Superior, drowned in Twin Bear Lake while skin diving with three other Superior residents.

Royal Neighbors Have July Outing At Loon Lake Home

BLACK CREEK — The Royal Neighbors held their July meeting at the Freeman cottage on Loon Lake. A noon pot-luck dinner was served. Junior members were at the outing and went boating and swimming.

At the business meeting, Mrs. R. H. Droeger, special auditor, gave her report. At "500" first, second and third places were won by Mrs. Ervin Rohloff, Mrs. Henner Brandt and Mrs. Clifford Wagner, respectively.

Chilton Church Sets Yearly Social Event

CHILTON — The annual fair and handwork social of the Ebenezer United Church of Christ has been scheduled for Tuesday evening at the church grounds.

A feature of the fair will be old-fashioned homemade ice cream. Ladies of the church will serve from 5 to 9 p.m.

On sale in addition to handwork will be candy, baked goods, bratwurst, hamburgers, potato salad, baked beans and cake.

Attends Convention

BLACK CREEK — Mrs. R. J. Tesch, president of the Ninth District, will attend the state convention of the American Legion Auxiliary at Madison, July 17 to 21, with headquarters at the Park Motor Inn.

Potluck Picnic Set

MARION—The Central Wisconsin Boys Baseball League passed the half-way mark last week as most teams played a double round of games. The highlight of the games was a no-hit shut-out pitched by Bonduel's Glenn Berkahn over the National League's Keshena.

In the American League, Tuesday, Marion edged Weyauwega 6-5. Bonduel shutout Iola 7-0. Waupaca beat Bear Creek 4-0 and Seymour beat Keshena 14-1.

Thursday, Marion downed Iola 12-2. Bonduel topped Keshena 16-2. Bear Creek beat Weyauwega 4-3 and Waupaca and Seymour were postponed.

In the National League, Tuesday, Weyauwega beat Marion 9-2. Bonduel edged Iola 6-3. Waupaca downed Bear Creek 7-1 and Seymour beat Keshena 12-3.

Thursday, Marion beat Iola 7-4. Bonduel shutout Keshena 7-0, behind Berkahn. Bear Creek beat Weyauwega 6-4 and Waupaca and Seymour were postponed.

Waupaca remained in first place in the American League on the strength of its Tuesday shut-out of Bear Creek. Manawa and Bonduel are tied for second with identical 3-1 records.

The Waupaca Americans scored all their runs in the first inning Tuesday. Triples by Dennis Riddle and Dan Stocker were the key blows. The winning pitcher, John Tolly, allowed just two hits and struck out 11 Bear Creek batters.

Pitching Stars Scott Bergsbagen and Jerry Bucholtz were the pitching stars in Bonduel's two wins in the American League. Bergsbagen gave up two hits in the win over Keshena and Bucholtz allowed only one hit while striking out 14 Iola batters.

Marion and Weyauwega split National League decisions and dropped out of a first-place tie with Manawa. Manawa was idle and retains its 9-0 record.

Tuesday, Weyauwega hopped on Marion for five runs in the first inning and four in the second on seven hits, five walks, two errors and three stolen bases. Tom Brandenburg and Tom John each poked solo homers to account for Marion's scoring.

Thursday, Marion clung onto second place, scoring four runs in the last two innings over Iola.

Struck Out 12 Berkahn struck out 12 in his no-hit performance, keeping Bonduel only one-half game behind the leaders.

Weyauwega's Nationals took their first loss of the season Thursday at the hands of Bear Creek. Bear Creek used a pair of three-run innings to gain the win. Bob Charles was the hitting star, banging out a pair of doubles to cap a perfect three-for-three day.

Girls End First Week of Activity at Northport Camp

NORTHPORT — Girl Scouts' methods of outdoor cooking and Brownie Scouts and leaders at Camp Vic-To-Rae northwest here ended the first week of day camp activities Friday afternoon after spending five days learning a host of new skills.

This week's campers included third and fourth graders from New London, Waupaca, Clintonville, Marion and Iola. Next Monday, fifth graders from the same area will take over, and July 22, advanced scouts will move in for a two-week day and stay session.

Lashing activity was taught in preparation for day and stay camping in coming years. Day and stay campers spend the first week in ordinary day camp sessions, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., and prepare their own campsite for a week-long camp-out the following week.

Parents Attend Highlight of this week's session was Thursday night, when about 150 parents came to see the scouts entertain and demonstrate their newly-learned skills. One unit demonstrated lashing. Another cooked a marshmallow treat for visiting parents.

During the week, the girls also made shadow boxes, sketched pictures with charcoal, lashed a platform between two trees to hold firewood and learned a variety of campfire songs. The girls also cooked their own meals three days of the week.

Among the meals they learned to prepare were corn bread, mush-puppies, "s'mores," a treat prepared by melting marshmallow and chocolate bar between two cracker wafers; and "Frankfurter-ka-bobs," a shish-ka-bob with frankfurters the main ingredient.

The camp is supervised by four adults, senior Girl Scouts and senior aides, each at least 15 years old. The girls are brought to and from home each day by buses.

ther side has given any ground and that the talks have had no chance of producing a significant agreement.

There was no immediate public response from Peking to the Soviet attack. But a long article in the official Peking People's Daily today underlined the unyielding stand taken by the Chinese.

Chinese Policies

The article by "Observer," usually a pseudonym for some high ranking Communist, said the "essential problem" of the Moscow talk was not "in one (side) making concessions to the other" but that the Soviet party must adopt the Chinese policies.

The Russians obviously have been just as insistent that the Chinese must hew to the Soviet line.

Despite the new Soviet blast, both delegations returned to the conference table today. But Western diplomats expected the Chinese would depart for Peking soon. The Soviet statement charged they had aggravated the differences between the Communist parties of the Soviet Union and China.

questioning on specific points Tuesday the committee will hold separate and joint sessions with the two sides, hoping to begin writing a report for Kennedy on Wednesday.

The railroads have postponed until July 29 putting into effect new work rules designed to eliminate gradually about 60,000 jobs they claim are unnecessary. The five operating unions, which say the jobs are essential for safe and efficient train operations, have promised to delay strike action until that date.

Oppose Legislation

Over the weekend Sens Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Wayne Morse, D-Ore., said they were opposed to legislation that would require compulsory arbitration of the dispute.

In a statement taped for television broadcast in New York City and Buffalo, N.Y., Javits said: "The country again is caught unprepared by a crisis like this because the administration and the Congress have been unwilling to face the hard realities of the needed labor-management legislation."

the rest of Kennedy's civil rights program "equally abominable." "A President who sponsors legislation such as the civil rights act of 1963 should be retired from office," Wallace said, predicting that Kennedy will learn in the 1964 election "it is not politically popular to send (troops) to Alabama and Mississippi."

Kennedy ordered federal troops into Oxford, Miss., last fall after rioting broke out on the University of Mississippi campus when a Negro enrolled in the school. He sent federal troops to bases near Birmingham in May following racial violence in the Alabama city.

Wallace echoed the charge of another Southern governor, Ross Barnett of Mississippi who testified against the measure Friday, in telling the committee that "there are Communist influences in the integration movement."

Promote Communism

Wallace said two congressional committees have identified the Southern Conference Educational Fund headed by the Rev. F. L. Shuttlesworth, Alabama Negro integration leader, as an organization created "to promote communism" in the South.

He said the identifications were made by the Senate Internal Security subcommittee and the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Wallace accused the nation's leaders of betraying the Negro with false promises of a Utopia five operating unions, which say the jobs are essential for safe and efficient train operations, have promised to delay strike action until that date.

Several hours later, after Kennedy had ordered units of the Alabama National Guard into federal service, he left the campus and the Negroes enrolled

Metropolitan Problems — Is There No Hope?

The Mayor of Minneapolis didn't say anything very new but he stated some familiar opinions in a most direct style lately when he remarked that the multiplication and fragmentation of local governments are making it impossible for large cities in this country to solve their problems. And he didn't have to limit the statement to large cities.

Mayor Arthur Naftalin was discussing this problem with a group of newspaper reporters at a seminar sponsored by the American Political Science Association. His conclusion was that the structure of government today is inadequate for the solving of metropolitan problems.

At the state level, he said, legislators are still dominated by rural lawmakers who are unconcerned with city problems. In suburbs, he continued, which depend on the central city for many of their services, residents do not care whether the city has good schools, parks or libraries. The flight to the suburbs has meant a loss of natural leadership to the central cities.

He painted a gloomy picture of the future of city government. He felt the prospects of local government consolidation or of metropolitan government are "almost nil."

Very few people who know anything at all about municipal government will dispute much the Mayor said.

The dispute starts when we try to figure out what to do about it.

The Post-Crescent, for the sake of argument, would like to suggest at least a partial approach.

Let's start with the proposition that contiguous municipalities have at least some common interests. Let's also concede that each such municipality has its own pride, a built-in power structure and problems which may not be common to all.

Informally, let's start conferring between all the municipalities concerned on those matters which are of common interest. We have done that in this area with future planning. Now let's expand it to consider services which might be provided on a common basis, sewer, water, police, fire protection to suggest a few.

And if we can agree that providing even one common service would be desirable, then let's get behind the legislation Gordon Bulois has had introduced at Madison to allow the formation of service districts to provide such services.

A metropolitan lobby at Madison can win concessions, we are now convinced. But it has to be a lobby representing all the cities, villages, towns and counties involved with metropolitan problems. In the past, cities and towns and counties have spent all their time fighting each other.

The only statement of Mayor Naftalin's with which we cannot agree is that hope for the solution of metropolitan problems is "almost nil."

Right of Privacy Fine Theory But It's Difficult to Enforce

the proper courts have decided it to be illegal.

Let its legality be peaceably and properly proved.

25 YEARS AGO

Monday, July 11, 1938.

Fourteen persons were injured, two seriously, when the big top of the Tom Mix Circus was blown over by a freak wind during a performance in Neenah the previous evening. The gale, accompanied by a heavy downpour, struck the tent when the show was at the halfway point with 1,000 persons watching. The north section of the tent was lifted high over the heads of the spectators, carrying the front part of the canvas half the length of the tent. The south part remained upright for a few seconds and then slowly collapsed.

Howard Hughes, millionaire sportsman and former movie producer, flew from New York City to Paris nonstop, cutting aviator Charles A. Lindbergh's time by more than half.

Los Angeles tennis star Bobby Riggs won the Fox River Valley tennis tournament championship for the second time at the Doly courts in Neenah. He defeated Ernie Suter of New Orleans in the championship game to become the first champion to repeat in the 15-year history of the club's meet. The tournament, under the direction of Hugh Strange Jr., Doly Tennis Club president, attracted more than 3,000 enthusiasts to Neenah. The entry list included every top-notch amateur in the United States.

The doubles championship was won by Charles E. Hare and Elwood Cooke, playing Riggs and Hal Surface in the finals.

10 YEARS AGO

Monday, July 12, 1953.

Lawrence College Conservatory of Music was bequeathed a harpsichord from the estate of world-renowned pianist Arthur Schnitke, native of Neenah, who died at the age of 70 Oct. 16, 1951, in New York City. He had studied in Paris and Vienna and made his debut at 20 as piano soloist with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra in Copenhagen.

Mrs. Robert Anderson was elected president of the Thomas E. Kees American Legion Auxiliary at Sherwood. Other new officers included Mrs. Gordon Frank, vice president, Mrs. John Stumpf, second vice president, and Ann Zahring, treasurer.

Mrs. Harry Plumb, Clintonville, was elected president of the Below family unit which held its 17th reunion the previous day at Central Park in Clintonville. Other officers elected were Mrs. Kenneth Spearbraker, Clintonville, treasurer, Lawrence Below, Appleton, treasurer, and Mrs. Albert Melike, Clintonville, historian.

Mrs. Ambrose Owen and Mrs. Ned Righter were to represent the First Presbyterian Church, Neenah, at a women's leadership training school in Lake Forest, Ill.

of privacy protects your peace of mind, your sensibilities, spirits and feelings.

Shortly before 1900 the right of privacy began to develop in our country, based essentially on constitutional grounds. And since then it's joined the ranks of Pickwick's Fat Boy: "Now you see him, now you don't."

The interesting theory is that the "right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" embraced your right to be free from the unwarranted and unauthorized exposure to the public of your person or activities in which the public has no legitimate interest.

RIGHT TO BE "LET ALONE"

Simplified, it's your right to be "let alone," to enjoy your life as you see fit without your name, picture or doings becoming public property unless you waive or relinquish this right.

However, this right is as full of holes as a Texas oil field. The right is not absolute. It can be waived, relinquished or defeated a dozen ways from Sunday; largely — if not entirely — by being anything but a hermit.

First, any public figure — and you might be surprised to learn how easily, legally, you can be a public figure — kisses goodbye to the right. Candidates, officials, actors, inventors, artists and the like are obvious. A public figure, by his own acts, achievements or mode of life, invites public interest in himself or herself and must accept even unwelcome publicity — and evermore, for it's construed that the public has a continuing interest even after retirement.

However, any private citizen who, willingly or not, participated in a newsworthy occurrence of legitimate interest to the public, even as a member of a group, is right up there with Lord Astor.

So is the victim, villain, hero or heel involved in any newsworthy occurrence — although, if what you do isn't newsworthy you don't have too much need for your right of privacy, anyway.

IT'S JURY QUESTION

However, and consolingly, the unwarranted and unauthorized exposure of your private affairs, if offensive to ordinary sensibilities and of no legitimate interest to the public (like refusing ever to bathe with water in the tub, for example) invades your right. Even so, it's a jury question whether or not that is a news event of public interest.

The roots of our American Revolution, and of most of our basic law, were in the political rights the British people asserted successfully in the first English Civil War and their own Revolution of 1688. And, in homage to law, the doors of the Inns of Court in London are built so low that all must bow to enter.

Curiously, however, the invasion of one's privacy was not accountable at common law, and, accordingly, was not inherited from England. More than most of our rights it is stamped "Made in the U.S.A."

Most states which have had invasion have recognized the right by court decisions or statutes.

FREEDOM OF PRESS

Apparently some of these qualified, to some extent, still another right, the constitutional guarantee of freedom of the press, which is a whole subject in itself.

Thus several state statutes have recently provided a penalty for such things as publishing the identity of the victim of rape or other awful assaults, which is surely the least that can be expected.

The rules applicable to the recovery of compensation and punitive damages for unwarranted invasion allow the recovery of damages for mere mental distress and injured feelings alone, the experts would explain. Also, you may be able to obtain an injunction to prevent a threatened invasion or further invasion. Moreover, it's generally no defense for a publication to have invaded your privacy without malice or by mistake.

Beyond this the right of privacy gets as complicated as alphabet soup at a Chinese dinner. And, of course, many have discovered that when they wanted the right of privacy most they didn't have it.

Legislative Principles Being Violated in Rush To Enact Tax Measure

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — Some of the cherished boasts of the legislature about its protection of the public interest in the rules of its procedure take a cruel battering in the final weeks of its deliberations.

Generations of teachers, publicists, legislative politicians and others have claimed, for example, that the Wisconsin legislature is unique in that all of the propositions before it get a public hearing. Yet the bundle of controversial propositions now embodied in the pending revenue bill includes many fundamental policy proposals that have yet to be submitted to public scrutiny at a public proceeding, where anybody affected by any one of them would have a right to speak.

Policy that has been settled for decades, in half a dozen directions, would be scuttled or modified in this omnibus tax bill, but the persons and the groups affected have not been able to understand clearly what was being proposed before it was too late even to write letters to their representatives.

THE PRICE

This is one of the apparently unavoidable characteristics of legislative operations. In February and March the law-makers will give leisurely hearings to bills of little or no consequence; in mid-summer they will impatiently dispose of the most basic questions.

Yet there are enormous dangers in the business.

The staff machinery of the legislature doubtless does its best. The assembly chief clerk, for example, dutifully mailed out copies of the tax-budget bill to the assemblymen at their homes during the week of recess occasioned by Independence Day. Only a few days later it was discovered that the bill contained gross errors and omissions, because of the haste with which the clerical pool of the state senate had been obliged to put it together for transmission to the assembly.

The result was that the corrected copy of the bill, the most voluminous and difficult measure to be acted upon during the session, did not reach the assemblymen until they returned to Madison, and within hours of the first roll calls on amendments.

Equally important, in the perspective of democratic procedure, was the fact that members of the general public who might have been concerned had no opportunity whatever for personal or analysis of the measure before the voting started. That person who was a member of a professional or business group maintaining a lobbyist at Madison was in somewhat better position. But not much. A score of lobbyists, at the least, sat up most of the night before the assembly reconvened, desperately trying to measure what the proposal meant to him and his clientele.

SOLUTION

The circumstances this year are especially difficult and contribute to what is a more aggravated situation than is the rule. The political division in the state government caused a good deal of the trouble.

But a part of the repeated confusion and uncertainty at the end of the session relates to human failures. The legislature is like the lazy football team which indolently plays through three quarters, and then tries for the touchdowns in the last minutes when it is reminded that the game has almost ended. Sometimes there are costly fumbles.

Mechanically the situation is not as serious as it may appear. Whatever errors of omission or commission are made in the pell-mell rush of today, for example, can be corrected with comparative ease later in the year, perhaps in the fall session which has become habitual for clean-up work.

Less tangible but perhaps more important in the long range is the erosion of an important tradition and honorable principle — the idea of full public notice and public discussion of legislative enactments. There will be some new taxes levied this summer about which the victims will be ignorant until they get their bills.

Growth of Slums Is Threat to Our Society

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS

Not long ago, I was talking with a teacher in Chicago, who has stubbornly remained in a school that lies deep within the slums. He was telling me about the attitude of most of the pupils.

"When people talk about slum living," he said, "they think about poverty and crowded housing and shabby clothes. But poverty as such is not the real problem in the slums — because rural poverty, for instance, doesn't breed the kind of reactions you find in city slums."

"Then what is the real problem?" I asked.

"It's fear," he replied. "Children grow up, from the earliest age, with fear and mistrust. The reason they feel it necessary to be 'tough' is their fear of attack; the only way they can defend themselves is by becoming like their potential attackers."

"They also grow up extremely mistrustful," he went on. "They see only the worst side of the police. They learn all about the fix and crooked politicians by the time they're 10. They acquire a deep cynicism about law and justice and the social ideals we profess in our textbooks. The qualities they learn to admire are force, shrewdness, and flashiness. How else could they survive in the jungle of the city slum?"

"Would more jobs, or better jobs, or higher income, help the problem very much?" I inquired.

"Not in themselves," he shook his head. "The slum is a sub-culture, and few are able to climb out of it by their own efforts. If they get extra income, they use it to solidify their position in the slum, not to leave it. The alleged values of the larger community strike them as phony."

"In my opinion," he continued, "the real threat to our democratic institutions and processes comes from this increasing sub-culture, as our metropolitan complexes grow and rural communities decline. And if the so-called 'good people' keep on deserting the cities for the suburbs, then the apparatus of city government will be increasingly controlled by the standards and values and felt needs of this sub-culture."

"Then what can we do?" I asked.

"It's a complex and enormous problem," he said. "And it calls for attack on all fronts at once — economic and social and psychological and political. We can't treat delinquency as an isolated problem, or consider housing in a vacuum, or just change the school pattern around. These young people are growing up in an atmosphere that makes them fearful, hostile and suspicious; that's what makes the slum so awful, and the city so dangerous. The situation calls for radical surgery, and we are feeding the patient aspirins, and expecting him to feel grateful."

U. S. Conscription Discussed

100 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for July 25, 1863.

Pending the discussion on conscription in the Senate, Sen. Ira Harris of New York wisely said:

"England, with her many wars and often scarcity of men, never resorted to this despotic measure. It was a mode of raising armies only used by despots, but never by reputable governments.

The principle, if adopted, would provide large standing armies, which almost inevitably lead to despotism. In a government of delegate power and one which rests upon the consent of the governed, it is inexpedient and unnecessary.

"Congress has not the power, under the Constitution, thus to destroy the militia of the states, which the Constitution provided for as a reserved force of the Union. If this measure is adopted, there would be centralized power."

Even Thad Stevens said it would never do to attempt the enforcement of conscription in this country. Our people were habituated to do everything by voluntary action, but instinctively rebel at the exhibition of force, he said.

Judge Harris is the ablest jurist in the Republican party; Stevens is the Administration leader in the House of Representatives.

We believe this is the first Federal draft ever attempted.

In 1812, drafts were made by the States from the State militias and were officered by the same. This was in response to a call for the State Militia by the Federal Government. We believe the only legal and constitutional method for raising troops by the Federal Government is through State authorities, as above indicated, or by volunteering in the Regular Army.

The Government may open recruit offices at every street corner if it so choose and solicit volunteer soldiers, but we are unable to perceive wherein they derive their power to force anyone into the Army, except by illicit rule!

However, the Conscription Act is the law of the land until the courts decide otherwise. As such, good or bad, it should be obeyed. No organized opposition to this or any other law should be tolerated for a moment until

Russians, Chinese Aim Barbs at History Books

BY JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — The efforts of the Russians and Red Chinese to explain their split would look like a farce in the use of language if the split itself did not have such immense significance for the future.

In their attacks on each other both sides were obviously writing for the history books to justify their positions. This was still no excuse for their long-windedness.

On June 14 the Chinese banded together Khrushchev—in a statement which took up four full pages when reprinted in an American newspaper. It was a scathing criticism of the Soviet Union.

Yet, it hardly mentioned the Soviet Union by name. Instead, it turned its scorn on "certain persons."

It ridiculed the Russians for accepting Western notions, condemning them as unrealistic, accused them of long and repeated hostility to Red China, and, in short, accused them of undermining world communism.

35,000 Word Reply
Over this past weekend the Russians replied in a 35,000-word open letter to "all Communist parties of the world." The Russians indicated the Red Chinese directly, thus demonstrating how much the split has widened.

This was a savage answer which accused the Red Chinese of being anti-white racists, of falsifications and distortions, of ingratitude for Soviet help and of undermining the unity of world communism.

In between the two documents, the Russians and Chinese on July 5 opened talks in Moscow to settle their differences. The weekend publication of Soviet feelings showed how little the talks achieved.

In fact, the Soviet statement said the Chinese delegates to the talks were making the split worse.

Summary
If that split—as it appears on the surface—could be summarized in a few paragraphs, this would be it:

1. Khrushchev, realizing the United States and Russia are so advanced in nuclear weapons that a war between them would eliminate both and much of the world besides, insists peaceful coexistence with the West is possible. The Red Chinese say it is impossible and that capitalism is aggressive and must be overcome by force. The Russians say the Chinese don't seem to have any idea what a nuclear war means.

2. Khrushchev isn't giving up hope of communizing the rest of the world. But he says this can be brought about peacefully. For instance: through internal efforts in individual countries and even through such devices as elections.

To this the Red Chinese say: nonsense. They insist that only revolutions can achieve world communism because the West wouldn't permit peaceful takeovers.

Actually, ill-will between the Russian and Chinese Communist parties go back into the 1920s when Stalin dominated the Red Chinese—20 years before they took control — and almost got them wiped out by Chiang Kai-shek.

Other tensions have built up since the Chinese Reds drove Chiang out of mainland China in 1949 and took over the country.

In addition, there is the ancient problem of nationalism—of rivalry—between the two forces.

On top of this, and perhaps as vital as anything in the split, is the fact that the Russians and Chinese are in two different stages of communism, the former far advanced, the latter just in the beginning stages.

Thus, the Russians, with their developing prosperity, would have far more to lose than the Chinese who are still in the scratching stage. They can afford to be more venturesome than the Russians.

Because this is so, Khrushchev has reason to be less reckless than the Chinese, although he was reckless enough last autumn when he slipped his missiles into Cuba and brought the United States and Russia to the edge of war.

He is no less a revolutionary than the Chinese. He's just more sophisticated. There can hardly be any doubt—even among the Chinese — that Khrushchev will never stop trying his luck when and where he can. Cuba showed that.

He just doesn't want to stick his neck out, if he thinks it will be chopped off. If he does stick it out, as he did in Cuba, and knows it back and wait for another time.
